Per BPPE Code #94910, "each institution that offers an educational program designed to lead to a particular career, occupation, vocation, trade, job, or job title shall disclose the wage and salary data for the particular career, occupation, trade, job, or job title, as provided by the Employment Development Department's Occupational Employment Statistics, if that data is available." TTS' purpose in offering these educational programs, and the students' intention of enrolling in these programs, are for edification and equipping for the Doctor of Ministry Program was in dormant for many years; it was just started in 2010. Therefore, this program is considered new, the number of students to be graduated, or placed in employment, or the possible starting salary after completing the education program are unknown at this time. Information regarding general salary and placement statistics may be available from government sources or from the institution, but is not equivalent to actual performance data. Besides, eligibal candidates for entering the Doctor of Ministry Program must be ministers in full-time positions already.
