CITATION

A Citation is hereby issued to Origin Code Academy, LLC, Owner of Origin Code Academy(Origin) located at 101 W. Broadway, Suite 1100 - 1125, San Diego, CA 92101, pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 125.9 and 149; California Education Code (CEC) section 94944; and Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations (5 CCR) section 75020 for the violation(s) described below.

BACKGROUND

On September 27, 2016, the Bureau received a complaint alleging that Origin was operating without Bureau approval. On November 29, 2016, after discovering that Origin was offering the ".Net Engineering" program on their website (www.originncodeacademy.com) for a tuition price of $12,500.00, the Bureau sent an "Operating Unapproved Letter" (UA) to C.W, Founder & Lead Instructor at Origin Code Academy, at 702 Charleston Road, Raleigh, NC 27606. The UA letter informed C.W, that the Bureau had evidence that Origin was advertising as a private postsecondary educational institution in violation of California Education Code section 94886 and offering educational programs that require Bureau approval. Origin was informed that they had 30 days in which to comply with UA letter and to cease operations as a private postsecondary education institution.

On May 1, 2017, the Bureau received Origin's Application for Approval to Operate an Institution Non-Accredited. On June 21, 2017, Bureau staff sent an acknowledgement letter to Origin advising receipt of the application. The letter also informed the school that per section 94886, "... a person shall not open, conduct, or do business as a private postsecondary educational institution in this state without obtaining an approval to operate under this chapter.”

On June 26, 2017, Bureau Enforcement staff traveled to San Diego, CA and made an unannounced visit to the Institution at 101 W. Broadway, Suite 1100, San Diego, CA 92101. While on site, Bureau staff met with the current Lead Instructor, S.C., for Origin, who confirmed that Origin was operating, and classes were currently in session. Bureau staff was escorted to the office of the Admissions Manager, R.D. R.D. shared information regarding the enrollment requirements for the students such as the need for a high school diploma or GED to be allowed into the program. R.D. stated that each student is interviewed to determine whether the student is a good candidate for the program and will be successful in their studies. R.D. stated that students generally pay for their studies up front or may take loans through third party lenders to pay for their education. Bureau staff then met with Owner/Member, J.W. who admitted that Origin was currently operating and had students in attendance. J.W. informed Bureau staff that he had submitted an Application for Approval to Operate an Institution Non-Accredited, and was currently awaiting approval. When Bureau staff informed J.W. that he was not allowed to operate while waiting for an approval to be granted, J.W. asked if he should just pay the fine for doing so, right then and there.

On February 13, 2018, based on multiple deficiencies, the Bureau sent J.W. a letter denying Origin’s approval to operate.

As of May 16, 2018, Origin has not appealed the Bureau’s denial. Origin continues to advertise their Coding Bootcamp Program for the 2018 calendar year.
