2 application.

3 In accordance with Section 1014, subdivision (c) of Title 1 of the California Code of 4 Regulations, a party withdrawing a request for hearing shall immediately notify the Office of

3 control of the Bureau you may send a Request for Discovery to the above designated Deputy 4 Attorney General.

5 STIPULATED SETTLEMENTS

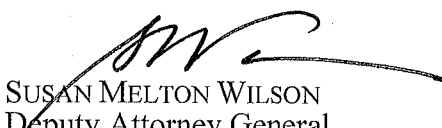

6 It may be possible to avoid the time, expense and uncertainties involved in an
7 administrative hearing by disposing of this matter through a stipulated settlement. A stipulated
8 settlement is a binding written agreement between you and the government regarding the matters
9 charged and the discipline to be imposed. Such a stipulation would have to be approved by the 10 Director of Consumer Affairs, Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education but, once approved, it
11 would be incorporated into a final order.

12 Any stipulation must be consistent with the Bureau's established disciplinary guidelines;
13 however, all matters in mitigation or aggravation will be considered. A copy of the Bureau's
14 Disciplinary Guidelines will be provided to you on your written request to the state agency
15 bringing this action.

16 If you are interested in pursuing this alternative to a formal administrative hearing, or if you

11 capacity to meet minimum operating standards. The application was formally denied on or about 12 March 25, 2016. Between March 14, 2011 and March 25, 2016, Respondent was given numerous
13 opportunities to correct deficiencies of the application, but failed to do so.<sup>3</sup> Each deficiency
14 referenced below represents a violation of applicable law, and is a separate and severable cause
15 for denial of the subject application:

17 show that Respondent was compliant with and/or met minimum operating standards as follows:

18 (1) The catalog did not contain description of facilities used for instruction, nor did it
19 describe the types of equipment or materials that will be used for instruction. This is a violation of 20 California Code of Regulations, title 5, sections 71810, subdivision (b)(9);

25 compliant with and/or met minimum operating standards as follows:

26 (1) Respondent fails to provide on the website "Homepage" clear and conspicuous
27 links to all the items required in Section 94913(a) of the Code. This is a violation of section

1 (2) On its Welcome Page, Respondent posts the statement: "Our programs have been
2 accepted by the Bureau of Private Postsecondary Education, State of California." There is no
3 additional information informing visitors to the website how to access the Bureau's internet
4 website. This is a violation of section 94913, subdivision (b).

14 (2) 2014 - Respondent submitted an Annual Report for 2014, but failed to comply
15 with California Code of Regulations, title 5, section 74110, subdivision (d), which requires that

22 School Performance Fact Sheet
23 Enrollment Agreement
24 Financial Statements

25 G. Additional Omissions and Discrepancies

26 In addition to the discrepancies referenced above, the subject application is also legally
27 deficient and incomplete due to Respondent's omission to provide each of the following items:
28

1 (1) STRF Assessment Reporting Forms - Respondent additionally failed to provide
2 Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) Assessment Reporting Forms as required for each time
3 period noted below:

- 4 • 1st quarter 2015

- 6 • 3rd quarter 2015

17 28. The application of Respondent is subject to denial under Education Code sections
18 94887 and 94891, subdivision (b), and 94897(i)(1) and (j)(2) in that on or about April 13, 2017,
19 Respondent published misleading and untrue statements and claims regarding veterans' benefits
20 in the institution's catalog, as follows:

21 A. On or about April 13, 2017, Respondent published the Institution's September 30,
22 2015 - September 30, 2017 Catalog (Revised April 13, 2017).

23 (1) At page 46, the catalog states: " World University is authorized to verify
24 enrollment information pertaining to veteran's benefits. Applicants should contact the 25 Veterans Administration directly for benefit information."

26 (2) At page 49 the catalog states: "The University currently does not provide financial
27 assistance in the way of grants, scholarships, or loans, except grants to U.S. armed forces
28 veterans."

1 B. Statements printed in the catalog are misleading in that they suggest veterans may 2 access benefits for the institution's programs. In fact, veterans benefits are not authorized, and
3 Respondent was expressly notified of this by letter dated February 2, 2017 from the California
4 State Approving Agency for Veterans Education (CSAAVE) to the effect that all courses offered
5 at World University of America are disapproved for veteran's benefits, effective February 2, 6 2017.

SECTION 11507.7: Petition to compel discovery; Order; Sanctions

(a) Any party claiming the party's request for discovery pursuant to Section 11507.6 has not been complied with may serve and file with the administrative law judge a motion to compel discovery, naming as respondent the party refusing or failing to comply with Section 11507.6. The motion shall state facts showing the respondent party failed or refused to comply with Section 11507.6, a description of the matters sought to be discovered, the reason or reasons why the matter is discoverable under that section, that a reasonable and good faith attempt to contact the respondent for an informal resolution of the issue has been made, and the ground or grounds of respondent's refusal so far as known to the moving party.

(b) The motion shall be served upon respondent party and filed within 15 days after the respondent party first evidenced failure or refusal to comply with Section 11507.6 or within 30 days after request was made and the party has failed to reply to the request, or within another time provided by stipulation, whichever period is longer.

(c) The hearing on the motion to compel discovery shall be held within 15 days after the motion is made, or a later time that the administrative law judge may on the judge's own motion for good cause determine. The respondent party shall have the right to serve and file a written answer or other response to the motion before or at the time of the hearing.

(d) Where the matter sought to be discovered is under the custody or control of the respondent party and the respondent party asserts that the matter is not a discoverable matter under the provisions of Section 11507.6, or is privileged against disclosure under those provisions, the administrative law judge may order lodged with it matters provided in subdivision (b) of Section 915 of the Evidence Code and examine the matters in accordance with its provisions.

(e) The administrative law judge shall decide the case on the matters examined in camera, the papers filed by the parties, and such oral argument and additional evidence as the administrative law judge may allow.

(f) Unless otherwise stipulated by the parties, the administrative law judge shall no later than 15 days after the hearing make its order denying or granting the motion.
