§ 76120. Amount of STRF Assessment.

(a) Each qualifying institution shall collect an assessment of zero dollars ($0) per one thousand dollars ($1,000) of institutional charges, rounded to the nearest thousand dollars, from each student in an educational program who is a California resident or is enrolled in a residency program. For institutional charges of one thousand dollars ($1,000) or less, the assessment is zero dollars ($0).

~~(b) Unless a student has a separate agreement to repay the third party, a student whose costs are paid to the institution by third party payer shall not pay the STRF assessment to the qualifying institution.~~

~~(c) Except when an institution provides a 100% refund pursuant to section 94919(d) or section 94920(b) of the Code, the assessment is non-refundable.~~

Note: Authority cited: Sections 94803, 94877, ~~and 94923~~ and 94924, Education Code. Reference: Sections ~~94923, 94843, and 94911(b), 94923, and 94924, Education Code.~~

§ 76130. Collection and Submission of Assessments.

(a)(1) A qualifying institution shall collect the assessment from each student in an educational program at the time it collects the first payment from or on behalf of the student at or after enrollment. The assessment shall be collected for the entire period of enrollment, regardless of whether the student pays the institutional charges in increments.

(2) The assessment to be collected from a re-enrolling student shall be limited to any amount that is due after crediting any prior assessment amount paid by the student. The enrollment agreement shall clearly identify any prior STRF assessment paid by the student.

(b) A qualifying institution shall complete the STRF Assessment Reporting Form ~~(Rev. 2/10)~~ and remit it with the STRF assessments collected from students to be received by the Bureau no later than the last day of the month following the close of the quarter as follows:

- (1) April 30 for the first quarter,
- (2) July 31 for the second quarter,
- (3) October 31 for the third quarter, and
- (4) January 31 for the fourth quarter. ~~If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or~~

~~State or federal holiday, the due date shall be extended to the next regular business day for the Bureau.~~

If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or State or federal holiday, the due date shall be extended to the next regular business day for the Bureau.

(c) The STRF Assessment Reporting Form shall contain the following information:

(1) Total number of students who signed enrollment agreements for educational programs during the reporting period; and

(2) Total number of students eligible for STRF who signed enrollment agreements for educational programs during the reporting period; and

(3) The total number of students who signed their enrollment agreement during the reporting period, were eligible for STRF, and who made their first payment during the reporting period; and

(4) The total number of students who signed their enrollment agreement in a previous reporting period, were eligible for STRF, and who made their first payment during the current reporting period; and

(5) Total amount of institutional charges after rounding each student's institutional charges to the nearest $1,000, for all eligible STRF students whose STRF assessment was collected in the reporting period; and

(6) Current contact telephone number of the person preparing the form; and

(7) A declaration dated and signed under penalty of perjury by the person preparing the form that the form and any attachments are true and correct.

(d) In the event of a school closure, any collected assessments shall be remitted to the Bureau within seven days following the cessation of instruction.

(e) Submission of all prior reports and assessments required by this section is a condition of renewal.

Note: Authority cited: Sections 94803, 94877 and 94923, Education Code. Reference: Section 94923, Education Code.

§ 76200. Application for Payment.

(a) A student seeking reimbursement under the Fund shall file a written application on the Bureau's Student Tuition Recovery Fund Application Form (~~STRF App Rev. 2/10~~), signed under penalty of perjury that the form and all attachments are true and correct, which includes the following information:

- (1) The student's name, address, telephone number, email address, and social security number or taxpayer identification number;
- (2) If any portion of the total charges were paid from the proceeds of a loan, the name of the lender, ~~and~~ any state or federal agency that guaranteed or reinsured the loan, and the most current loan statement;
- (3) Proof of the amount and description of the student's economic loss for the educational program, and the amount of the student's claim;
- (4) Proof of the date the student started and ceased attending the institution;
- (5) A description of the reasons the student ceased attending the institution, or if the student graduated, date of graduation;
- (6) The student's or borrower's signed authorization to allow the Bureau to negotiate with any lender, holder, guarantee agency, or the U.S. Department of Education on the student's behalf to reduce the loan obligation;
- (7) The student's authorization to allow the Bureau to issue a payment directly to any lender, holder, guarantee agency, or the U.S. Department of Education on the student's behalf; and
- (8) An assignment to the Fund and the Bureau of the student's rights to collect those funds against the institution if any payment issues as a result of the application;
- (9) The institution name, address and phone number where the student attended;
- (10) Proof that the student was a California resident at time of enrollment, or was enrolled in a residency program;
- (11) ~~Proof that the student paid into the STRF~~ Whether the student has received reimbursement or forgiveness from any source related to the economic loss;
- (12) If the student took an approved leave of absence, documentation of the approval;
- (13) Whether the student has previously applied for STRF reimbursement;
- (14) Whether the course of study or portion completed prepared the student to take a state or national licensure exam, and if so, the licensure exam title; ~~and~~
- (15) If the student transferred to another school, a copy of the enrollment agreement from the new school and a list of all classes or units transferred;

(16) If any portion of the total charges were paid by a third party payer, the name of the third party payer and proof of payment;

(17) If the student has been awarded restitution, a refund, or other monetary award by an arbitrator or court, a copy of the order;

(18) Evidence to substantiate enrollment (for example, an enrollment agreement or transcripts);

(19) Proof of economic loss, such as copies of receipts, promissory notes or loan documents, and all other documents to substantiate the student's recoverable expenses; and

(20) If the application includes student loan(s) as part of the claim, documentation of the response by the loan holder(s) to the student's request to have the student loan(s) discharged.

(b) The application must be fully completed and received by the Bureau, with supporting documents that include, but need not be limited to, the enrollment agreement, promissory notes, if any, and any receipts.

(1) For closure of an institution, the application must be received, within two (2) years from date of the closure notice explaining the student's rights under STRF, whether provided by the institution or the Bureau, or a maximum of four (4) years from the date of closure if the student received no closure notice.

(2) For discontinuation of a program, refund award ordered by the Bureau, failure to pay or reimburse loan proceeds, or an award ordered by an arbitrator or court based on a violation of the Act, the application must be received within 2 years from the award order, failure to pay or reimburse loan proceeds, or program closure.

~~(e) Students whose total charges are paid by a third party payer are not eligible to apply for payment by the Fund.~~

~~(d)~~(c) The Bureau may conduct an investigation to verify whether to grant or deny a claim, and may request any additional information or supporting documentation to supplement the aforementioned requirements.

Note: Authority cited: Sections 94803, 94877 and 94923, Education Code. Reference: Sections 94870 and 94923, Education Code.

§ 76210. Claims Amount, Payment and Denial.

(a) A student seeking reimbursement under the Fund that includes student loans as part of the claim shall attempt to obtain a loan discharge directly from the loan holder before the Bureau can process the student's application for payment under section 76200.

~~(a)~~(b) The Bureau may negotiate with a lender, holder, guarantee agency, or the U.S. Department of Education for the full compromise or write-off of student loan obligations to relieve students of economic loss and, if possible, to reduce the liability of the Fund for the payment of claims.

~~(b)~~(c) The Bureau may pay a student's claim directly to the lender, holder, guarantee agency, or U.S. Department of Education.

~~(c)~~(d) If the Bureau grants the claim, the amount of the payment is measured by the total amount of the student's economic loss, as defined in Section 76000, less the amount of any refund, reimbursement, indemnification, restitution, compensatory damages, settlement, debt forgiveness, discharge, cancellation, compromise or any other benefit received by, or on behalf of, the student that ~~was~~ is related to the economic loss. The amount of the payment is not dependent on, or necessarily limited to, the amount of refund the student would have received from the institution if the student had voluntarily withdrawn. The Bureau cannot pay any claim to or for a student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.

~~(d)~~(e) In addition to the reductions in ~~(c)~~(d) above, the Bureau may reduce the amount of the payment by the value of the benefit, if any, of the education obtained by the student before the closure of the institution.

(f) For a student that suffers educational opportunity loss whose charges were paid by a third-party payer, the Bureau will pay the student's charges at a subsequent institution up to the original third-party payer benefit. The subsequent institution must be eligible to receive the same third-party payer benefit as the original institution or program, and the Bureau must have evidence of the student's enrollment at the subsequent institution.

~~(e)~~(g) If a student participated in a teach-out, the following conditions also apply:

(1) If the student withdraws from the teach-out institution within the first two weeks of enrollment, the student's economic ~~losses are~~ loss is calculated as though the student never received the teach-out.

(2) If the student withdraws from the teach-out institution after the first two weeks of enrollment, the student's economic loss includes only a pro rata portion of charges for the hours of the education service paid for, but not received from, either institution.

(3) If the teach-out institution provides all of the remaining instruction that the closed institution had represented it would provide, the student's economic loss shall not include any amount the student paid to the closed institution specifically for instruction.

(4) Regardless of participation in a teach-out, a student may recover economic losses other than those specifically related to the instruction.

~~(f)~~(h) Upon payment of the claim, all of the student's rights against the institution for that amount of payment shall be deemed assigned to the Bureau.

~~(g)~~(i) If the Bureau denies the claim, or reduces the amount of the claim, the Bureau may informally consider a written appeal and modify its decision.

~~(h)~~(j) If a written appeal is not received by the Bureau within 30 calendar days from the date of the decision, the Bureau's decision shall be final.

Note: Authority cited: Sections 94803, 94877 and 94923, Education Code. Reference: Section 94923, 92924 and 94925, Education Code.

§ 76212. Claims by Government Agency on Behalf of Students.

If the Bureau, the Attorney General, or any other law enforcement agency obtains a judgment against an institution on behalf of one or more students pursuant to Section 17200 of the Business and Professions Code or similar authority, ~~that law enforcement agency~~ the student(s) for which the judgment was obtained may ~~shall~~ be entitled to payment from the Fund under the following conditions:

- (a) The institution was ~~qualified~~ a qualifying institution and is now closed;
- (b) A remedy cannot be obtained despite diligent efforts to prosecute, prove, and collect a judgment;
- (c) ~~The Bureau, the Attorney General, or other law enforcement agency filed a~~ A claim is filed within two years after the judgment became final;
- (d) ~~A claim indicating~~ The claim indicates the total amount of the judgment allocable to each student ~~is filed; and~~
- (e) The total amount paid to each student does not exceed the total amount of the student's economic loss, as defined in Section 76000, less the amount of any prior payment from the STRF for related economic loss amount that the student would have been entitled to receive if the student had obtained a judgment for the amount allocable to the student; and
- (f) The claim is subject to the additional limitations and rights set forth in Section 76210.

Note: Authority cited: Sections 94803, 94877 and 94923, Education Code. Reference: Section 94923, Education Code.

§ 76215. Student Tuition Recovery Fund Disclosures.

(a) A qualifying institution shall include the following statement on both its enrollment agreement ~~for an educational program and its current schedule of student charges~~ school catalog:

“The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident, or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss.
