On January 28, 2016, an informal conference was held in the matter of Citation: Assessment of Fine and Order of Abatement No. 1516041 (Citation) against Moises Castaneda, Owner of United School of America. In attendance were Yvette Johnson, Enforcement Chief, and Larry Madoski, Director.

Pursuant to Business and Professions Code, §148; California Education Code (CEC), §94944; and Title 5 of California Code of Regulations (5 CCR), §75020 and §75040, the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education (Bureau) renders the following decision relative to your appeal of the Citation No. 1516041.

It is the decision of the Enforcement Chief that on February 23, 2016, Citation No. 1516041 is modified and makes the following change(s):

VIOLATION

|----|---|
| # | The California Education Code (CEC) and the California Code of Regulations (CCR). Below you will find the code section(s) of law you are charged with violating. |
| 1. | MODIFIED Violation: CEC 94904(a) - Ability to Benefit Students “(a) Before an ability-to-benefit student may execute an enrollment agreement, the institution shall have the student take an independently administered examination from the list of examinations prescribed as of July 1, 2012, by the United States Department of Education pursuant to Section 484(d) of the federal Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. Sec. 1070a et seq.). The student shall not enroll unless the student achieves a score, as specified by the United States Department of Education, demonstrating that the student may benefit from the education and training being offered.” |

In an email sent to Bureau staff on 10/25/13, N. R., United School of America's school counselor, confirmed that the institution administers the Wonderlic exam for admission to the institution, however, it is administered by the staff at the school, not a proctor. The Ability to Benefit testing method used by United School of America does not comply with CEC 94904(a).

Order of Abatement:

The Bureau orders that United School of America implement new procedures for administering an approved ATB test to prospective students in compliance with CEC 94904(a).
Submit evidence of compliance indicating how ATB tests are administered to the Bureau.

Assessment of Fine

The modified fine for this violation is $2,500.00

MODIFIED

2. Violation:

5, CCR 71770(a)(1) - Admissions Standards and Transferred Credits Policy.

"(a) The institution shall establish specific written standards for student admissions for each educational program. These standards shall be related to the particular educational program. An institution shall not admit any student who is obviously unqualified or who does not appear to have a reasonable prospect of completing the program. In addition to any specific standards for an educational program, the admissions standards must specify as applicable that: (1) Each student admitted to an undergraduate degree program, or a diploma program, shall possess a high school diploma or its equivalent, or otherwise successfully take and pass the relevant examination as required by section 94904 of the Code. "

CEC 71920(b)(1)(A) - Student Records

"(b) In addition to the requirements of section 94900, the file shall contain all of the following pertinent student records:

(1) Written records and transcripts of any formal education or training, testing, or experience that are relevant to the student's qualifications for admission to the institution or the institution's award of credit or acceptance of transfer credits including the following:

(A) Verification of high school completion or equivalency or other documentation establishing the student's ability to do college level work, such as successful completion of an ability-to-benefit test;"

On 11/26/12, student A.G. was registered at United School of America without a high school diploma or GED. The institution failed to give A.G. an ATB test in violation of their admission policy which states "non-high school graduates will be administered an Ability to Benefit test. Acceptance into a program is contingent upon a student's achievement of a qualifying score."

Order of Abatement:

The Bureau orders that United School of America implement new procedures for administering an approved ATB test to prospective students in compliance with 5, CCR 71770(a)(1) and submit written evidence of compliance to the Bureau. Maintain evidence of a properly administered ABT in student files as required by 71920(b)(1)(A).
