SCHOOL PERFORMANCE FACT SHEET

Prior to enrolling in an educational program in California, the California Private Postsecondary Act (CPPEA) of 2009 requires schools to provide prospective students with specific information including: completion rates, placement rates, starting salaries and licensure examination passage rates for each educational programs offered. On the tables below, students will find completion rates for each of the degree programs offered at California Coast University. As California Coast University does not provide job placement services or offer programs designed to meet any particular licensure requirements, no data is available for placement rates, starting salaries, or licensure examination passage rates.

Please review the data below and initial and date next to your program of interest as well as sign the last page. Return this sheet in the enclosed, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

CCU degree programs are offered on a rolling or open admissions basis and courses may be completed at the student's own pace. Students have a maximum of five years to complete their degree program. The information below is therefore based on students who began their program five years prior to the calendar year provided.
