On the leading edge of mind-body healing, the fields of Holistic Massage, Ayurveda, Rebirthing, and other Holistic Health practices support self care, natural therapeutics, person growth and healing.

Healing touch, and other various healing modalities have been practiced in many cultures for thousands of years. Our goal has been to integrate the old with the new. We have investigated and integrated ancient and modern wisdoms to create a hands-on experience that will facilitate your own personal growth as well as bring out your own inner healer.

We provide both introductory and advanced courses, including a comprehensive 500 hour program that will provide you with the training necessary to be a successful and effective holistic health practitioner and pursue national certification.

What is really represented here is the possibility for all of us to consciously evolve to higher and higher levels of wellness and personal potential through skilled touch, body awareness, resolution of emotional disharmony, creativity, self expression and the satisfaction of doing something to help others.

Many of our graduates testify that the impact of the quality of their personal lives was one of the most valuable results of the program. They have found it a pleasurable and empowering path for personal growth, relating and self-healing.

Energy Medicine

Open to anyone interested in Alternative Medicine, this training will provide an in-depth and highly experiential study of the Subtle Body or Quantum Energy Body. The physical body is the most concrete form through which the formless soul or personal essence can manifest. Unresolved, suppressed material causes fragmentation of self, progressing toward self-destructive habits, accidents or disease. The body is a faithful recorder of personal history. The issues and difficulties we encounter in our lives become stored in the intelligent structures of ourselves / cells. Transpersonal Breathwork, imagery and metaphor (Hypnosis), and Creative Movement as well as other holistic bodywork modalities demonstrate that long forgotten traumas can be elicited from the body, and resolved. Aspects of these modalities will be explored in this class for personal growth and transformation. Energy is the integrating factor that can bring all the parts of the self into a harmonized whole. Students will experience techniques and practices that facilitate the flow of energy in the human system. Breath work, energy mapping, toning, power imaging, and quantum intuitive development are part of this rich class experience for personal wholeness and freedom.

Trained Rebirther Certification Course

Prenatal Growth & Rebirth Shaping the possible human psyche and potential

This course is an exciting hands-on opportunity for individuals to gain insight into the conscious patterns and issues that influence personal relationships, fears, goals, motivations, reoccurring patterns of tension, and general life obstacles. We do this through the healing art of Rebirthing, a method that allows us to communicate with the psyche and inner child to deal with issues most traditional psychotherapy cannot address. Rebirthing is an empowering, natural process that facilitates personal growth by uncovering and resolving pre- and perinatal trauma in adults, children, and infants. It uses the breath to access and utilize special states of consciousness - the pre-nate and inner child. This is a powerful tool to journey into oneself and unlock cellular memory, original imprinting and stored negative emotions to create a variety of educational and therapeutic settings. Current perspectives on pre- and perinatal psychology will also be presented as well as tools for holistic counseling. This is a 100 hr. course.

Trained Rebirther (T.R.) 100 hrs.

Students must experience a minimum of 10 Rebirthing sessions with a Professional Rebirther, healing their own pre- and perinatal trauma. This can be done at the School via Student Apprenticeships, or with another qualified professional (20 documented hours).
