** The Doctor of Business Administration program graduate was international student and left the United States after graduation.

1. - "Number of students who began program" is the number of students who began the program who are scheduled to complete the program in the reporting calendar year (2011).
2. - "Number of graduates" is the number of students who have completed the program in the reporting calendar year (2011).
3. - "Graduates available for employment" is the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment. "Graduates unavailable for employment" means graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution in the reporting calendar year (2011).
4. - "Number of graduates employed in the field" is the graduates who report that they are gainfully employed within six months of graduation in a position for which the skills obtained through the education and training provided by the institution are required or provided a significant advantage to the graduate in obtaining the position.
5. - "Placement Rate" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of "graduates available for employment" in the reporting calendar year (2011).
6. - "Average salary" is the mean of the salary in which is reported by the graduates who are employed in the field within six months of graduation.

SCHOOL PERFORMANCE FACT SHEET (2011)

In compliance with the California Postsecondary Education Act of 2009, Silicon Valley University provides the following Statements of Fact

The Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education (BPPE), as the regulatory body for private postsecondary institutions for the State of California, requires that each institution provide the following information to students, prior to enrollment, as evidence of recognition of the need to address consumer protection:

- Completion rates for each program of instruction;
- Placement rates for each program of instruction;
- Average salary or wage information for each program.

***License-examination rates are not applicable as the educational programs are not necessary lead to an occupation that requires licensing.

The Doctor of Computer Engineering (DCE) program at Silicon Valley University started in 2010 and it is too new to provide data for the categories that listed above. Therefore, the number of students who graduated, the number of students who were placed, and the starting salaries after finishing the program for this program are unknown at this time. Information regarding general salary and placement statistics may be available from government sources or from the institution, but it is not equivalent to actual performance data.

This fact sheet is filed with the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education. Regardless of any information that related to completion rates, placement rates, starting salaries, or license exam passage rates, this fact sheet contains the information as calculated pursuant to state law.

Any questions a student may have regarding this fact sheet that have not been satisfactorily answered by the institution may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education at P.O. Box 980818 Sacramento, CA 95798-0818, <http://www.bppe.ca.gov/>; Phone: (916) 574-7720.
