- (1) The student completion rate is calculated by the number of graduates divided by the students available for graduation in 2011. The placement rate is calculated by the number of graduates employed in the field divided by the number of graduates available for employment in 2011. The salary and wage is calculated by the number of graduated employed in the field and the average of the annual salary. A hard copy of the completion, placement and salary rate are kept in the placement department in our facility for your review.
- (2) A bulletin board is posted in the school facility which provides a list of employment positions for the students in their training field. Jobs are found by using technology and internet services to seek possible job opportunities and current job leads, and net-working within the respected industry.
- (3) A labor market in the auto-mechanic field could be found at
