School Performance Fact Sheet

GENERAL

The mission of California International Theological Seminary (CITS) is to provide a Christian education at the baccalaureate and post-baccalaureate levels in biblical studies, theology, and selected applied and professional fields. The focus in seeking to train pastors is to lead them toward excellence in their role of equipping God’s people for Christian service.

The baccalaureate program seeks to equip lay persons who desire a more intense level of personal study and discipleship in practical ways for their roles within the local church.

ACCREDITATION

California International Theological Seminary has received the institutional accreditation by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education (BPPE), 2535 Capital Oaks Drive, Suite 400, Sacramento, CA 95833. It has also received the institutional accreditation from Transworld Accrediting Commission, located in Siloam Springs, Arkansas, for non-traditional Christian Schools, Bible Colleges and Theological Seminaries.
