¹⁵Students choose to attend trainings at the School for Self-Healing for many different reasons. Students attend for a range of reasons, including personal growth, physical improvement, personal interest, continuing education units (CEUs), and to obtain massage therapy licensure. Furthermore, Level One Segment A is an introductory course geared toward students’ personal interests. If students expect to continue on for massage therapy licensure, we encourage them to continue on to Level One Segment B. For this reason, employment statistics are not reported in the above tables.

Students attend for a range of reasons, including personal growth, physical improvement, personal interest, continuing education units (CEUs), and to obtain massage therapy licensure. For this reason, student employments in the field of study are low as compared with programs intended specifically to prepare students for employment. Furthermore, there is no single licensure that students would be applying for, as there are many fields students can apply their education to.
