Examination Passage Rates

License examination passage data is not available from the state agency administering the examination. This data was obtained from students as soon as they pass the State Nurse Assistant Competency examination. The administration of the exam is always held at Arriba Juntos with the State personnel coming to AJ site and administering the exam. Right after students take the exam, their Case Managers/ Employment Specialist (CM/ES) make multiple copies of the passing certificate, provide a copy to the student and place another copy in their files. The State personnel also discuss the number of passing and failings with the Program Coordinator after the exam.
