10 institution and, to the extent applicable, each general partner, officer, corporate director, corporate 11 member or any other person who exercises substantial control over the institution's management

16 person who exercises substantial control over the institution's management or policies.

1 Except as provided above, the Bureau shall not renew or reinstate the approval to operate of 2 any respondent who has failed to pay all the costs as directed in a Decision.

3 12. Violation of Probation

4 If Respondent violates probation in any respect, the Bureau, after giving Respondent notice 5 and opportunity to be heard, may revoke probation and carry out the disciplinary order which was 6 stayed. If an Accusation or a Petition to Revoke Probation is filed against Respondent during 7 probation, the Bureau shall have continuing jurisdiction until the matter is final, and the period of 8 probation shall be extended, and Respondent shall comply with all probation conditions, until the 9 matter is final.

10 13. Future Approvals to Operate

11 If respondent subsequently obtains other approvals to operate during the course of this 12 probationary order, this Decision shall remain in full force and effect until the probationary period

15 14. Comply with All Accreditation Standards

16 As applicable, Respondent shall comply with all standards set by its accreditor in order to 17 maintain its accreditation. Respondent shall submit to the Bureau, in writing, a full detailed 18 account of any and all actions taken by any accrediting agency against Respondent regarding any 19 institution operated by respondent, including an order to show cause, or conditions or restrictions 20 placed on accreditation, within five (5) days of occurrence.

21 15. Completion of Probation

22 Upon successful completion of probation, Respondent's approval to operate will be fully 23 restored.

24 16. Operations Auditor/Billing Auditor

25 Within 45 days of the effective date of this Decision, Respondent shall submit to the Bureau

5 Respondent's operations shall be audited. Auditing shall consist of at least one hour per month of 6 face to face meetings with Respondent and shall continue during the entire probationary period.

7 While such face to face meetings may include a director or employee of the institution not

9 shall participate in each such meeting. The Respondent shall provide the auditor with a copy of 16 Respondent shall notify all current and potential students of any term or condition of 23 approved by the Bureau. During this period of non-operation, probation will be tolled and will not 24 commence again until the period of non-operation is completed. Respondent shall pay all costs

25 associated with this auditing requirement. Failure to pay these costs shall be considered a 26 violation of probation.
