Definitions

“Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.

“Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.

“Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.

“On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.

“150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).

“150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.

“Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.

“Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.

“Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.

“Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.

“Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

“First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.

“Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO
CANCEL

You have the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation shall occur when you give written notice of cancellation at the institution's address. You can do this by mail, hand delivery, fax, or e-mail. The written notice of cancellation, if sent by mail, is effective when it is deposited in the mail properly addressed with prepaid postage. Address is as follows: Hamilton College, Attention: Campus Director, 3251 Sixth Street, Suite 401, Los Angeles, CA 90020. The written notice of cancellation does not need any particular form, however expressed; it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by the enrollment agreement. On the first day of class, you will be given a Notice of Cancellation form for your use if you decide to cancel, however, you can use any written notice that you may wish. You must notify us of your cancellation at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, to avoid any charges. You do not cancel the contract by just not attending classes.

Additionally, the College also may reject an applicant for enrollment; and, an applicant accepted by the institution may cancel his or her agreement prior to the scheduled class start or may never attend class (no show). The College may consider a withdrawal after the class start as a cancellation or no show and therefore not consider the applicant as a new start. The College reserves the right to postpone or cancel a scheduled program or course if the registration is insufficient to establish a class.

If the College has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, they are a part of your tuition. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation, unless returned in "as new" condition. If you cancel the agreement, the school will refund any money that you paid, less any deduction for registration fee, books, uniforms and equipment received that has been used.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO

You have the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation shall occur when you give written notice of cancellation at the institution's address. You can do this by mail, hand delivery, fax, or e-mail. The written notice of cancellation, if sent by mail, is effective when it is deposited in the mail properly addressed with prepaid postage. Address is as follows: Hamilton College, Attention: Campus Director, 3251 Sixth Street, Suite 401, Los Angeles, CA 90020. The written notice of cancellation does not need any particular form, however expressed; it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by the enrollment agreement. On the first day of class, you will be given a Notice of Cancellation form for your use if you decide to cancel, however, you can use any written notice that you may wish. You must notify us of your cancellation at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, to avoid any charges. You do not cancel the contract by just not attending classes.

Additionally, the College also may reject an applicant for enrollment; and, an applicant accepted by the institution may cancel his or her agreement prior to the scheduled class start or may never attend class (no show). The College may consider a withdrawal after the class start as a cancellation or no show and therefore not consider the applicant as a new start. The College reserves the right to postpone or cancel a scheduled program or course if the registration is insufficient to establish a class.

If the College has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, they are a part of your tuition. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation, unless returned in "as new" condition. If you cancel the agreement, the school will refund any money that you paid, less any deduction for registration fee, books, uniforms and equipment received that has been used.

Definitions

“Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.

“Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.

“Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.

“On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.

“150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).

“150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.

“Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.

“Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.

“Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.

“Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.

“Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

“First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.

“Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.

You have the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation shall occur when you give written notice of cancellation at the institution's address. You can do this by mail, hand delivery, fax, or e-mail. The written notice of cancellation, if sent by mail, is effective when it is deposited in the mail properly addressed with prepaid postage. Address is as follows: Hamilton College, Attention: Campus Director, 3251 Sixth Street, Suite 401, Los Angeles, CA 90020. The written notice of cancellation does not need any particular form, however expressed; it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by the enrollment agreement. On the first day of class, you will be given a Notice of Cancellation form for your use if you decide to cancel, however, you can use any written notice that you may wish. You must notify us of your cancellation at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, to avoid any charges. You do not cancel the contract by just not attending classes.

Additionally, the College also may reject an applicant for enrollment; and, an applicant accepted by the institution may cancel his or her agreement prior to the scheduled class start or may never attend class (no show). The College may consider a withdrawal after the class start as a cancellation or no show and therefore not consider the applicant as a new start. The College reserves the right to postpone or cancel a scheduled program or course if the registration is insufficient to establish a class.

If the College has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, they are a part of your tuition. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation, unless returned in "as new" condition. If you cancel the agreement, the school will refund any money that you paid, less any deduction for registration fee, books, uniforms and equipment received that has been used.
