On March 2, 2021, the Bureau received an anonymous tip alleging that the Institution was operating without Bureau approval.

On March 5, 2021, Bureau staff reviewed the Institution’s website and found that the Institution was offering a five weeks course for the Class (A) California Driver’s License class.

On March 8, 2021, Bureau staff called and emailed the Institution and requested the following information regarding the five weeks course for the Class (A) California Driver’s License class:

- The total cost of the tuition for the course;
- If there is documentation verifying the total tuition amount;
- A copy of the enrollment agreement or documentation that a student signs upon enrolling with the school
- If there is an additional charge if a student goes over the five weeks, if so how much?;
- Are students charged extra for truck rentals for the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) test or is it included in the total tuition cost for five weeks course?
- Once a student completes the course is the student awarded a diploma or certificate of completion?

On March 9, 2021, the Institution’s Administrative Assistant responded to the email stating that the Institution is not accredited and provided the following:

- The total cost of the tuition is $2,600.00;
- Students are entitled access to training for six to eight weeks and a manual to help the student prepare for the Class (A) written exam;
- The tuition includes the training and for the appointment with DMV for the behind the wheel test. If the student cancels the test last minute or does not show up for the appointment, the student will pay an additional $500.00 for the ongoing training;
- There is an $800.00 truck rental fee for one day, the truck is used during the DMV driving test.

On the same day, Bureau staff emailed the Institution requesting clarification regarding the total cost of the tuition and inquired as to who the owner of the Institution was. The Institution’s Administrative Assistant responded to the email stating the owner’s name is Frank Velasco and that the total cost of the tuition is $2600.00, which includes the truck rental and for the appointment with DMV for the behind the wheel test.

As of April 22, 2021, the Institution charges $2,600.00 for the Class (A) California Driver’s License class and is operating without Bureau approval or a valid exemption.
