On August 11, 2016, the Bureau received an Application for Verification Status from the Institution.

On September 2016, the Bureau denied the Institution’s Application for Verification of Exempt Status.

On July 31, 2019, the Bureau received a complaint alleging that the Institution was charging $6,000.00 in tuition and operating without Bureau approval.

On August 8, 2019, Bureau staff contacted the Institution and the Institution staff confirmed that the Institution charges $6,000.00 in tuition once the student passes a Commercial Truck Driving course administered through a third-party school, Truck Driving Academy (TDA), obtains a CDL Class A License, and starts to work for the Institution. Tuition is taken from the student’s paycheck once employed by the Institution. The Institution also confirmed that students sign a Tuition Finance Agreement.

On August 22, 2019, Institution staff stated that students are given certificates created by TDA once the students have paid all the Institution’s tuition and/or housing fees.

On August 27, 2019, Bureau staff found that Institution pays TDA $1,100.00 for every student that completes the Commercial Truck Driving course and obtains a CDL Class A License.

The Institution enters students into enrollment agreements, collects tuition in the amount $6,000.00 or more, and pays for students to attend a third-party school. The Institution is operating as a private postsecondary educational institution and does not qualify for an exemption under CEC section 94874.

To comply with the Order of Abatement the Institution must submit a school closure plan to the Bureau pursuant to California Education Code section 94926. The Institution must provide a roster of each student currently enrolled at the Institution. The roster must include the names of the students, their contact information (including
