There is no licensure examination for Hemodialysis technicians. Dialysis Technicians receive Certification from the California Department of Public Health after completing all requirements. Passing the State or National exam for Hemodialysis is one of the requirements for certification. Although certification is not a requirement for employment as a dialysis technician, dialysis technicians need to be certified within 18 months from start of their employment.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL: You have the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Cancellation occurs when you give written notice of cancellation at the institution's address. You can do this by mail, in person, by fax or telegram. The notice, if mailed is effective by postmark date. This notice need not take any particular form; it needs only to state that you wish to cancel this agreement. If you cancel this agreement, Dialysis School of San Diego will refund any money that you paid, less any deductions for equipment not timely returned in new condition within 45 day after receipt of the notice.
