MISSION

Our mission is to offer educational programs which enable students to achieve their potential by obtaining the abilities, attitudes, and skills needed for personal and professional growth to stimulate re-employment and/or upgrade current employment opportunities.

OBJECTIVES

We provide individualized and intensive training to the community of injured workers to acquire new skills for re-employment. The programs allow us to offer entry level training in job preparation and short course employment training. Part of our mission is to convey to students the importance of continuing education.

FACILITY AND EQUIPMENT

Creative Career Options main campus is located at 19 Wimbledon Court, Dana Point, CA 92629. The campus houses an administrative office that maintains student records.

The school provides one-on-one instruction at the student's residence. Also, provides instruction at main campus.

Instructional Equipment:

All students must have access to an IBM® compatible computer with Internet access.

ADMISSION POLICY AND PROCEDURE

POLICY

Admission into any of the programs requires that the applicant have a high school diploma or equivalent.

Recognized equivalent of secondary education includes a GED, passing results of the California High School Proficiency Exam, a DD214 that indicates high school equivalency, a degree issued to the student that indicates high school graduation on the transcript, or completion of a bachelor degree.

PROCEDURE

Admission procedures include meeting with a school representative to review goals, programs offered, school policies and procedures, the school performance fact sheet, and graduation requirements. Each prospective student must provide documentation of:

1. prior education documentation as outlined in the Admission Policy for the program of interest;
2. complete an enrollment agreement; and
3. make payment arrangements.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS AND ENGLISH LANGUAGE SERVICES

Creative Career Options does not offer visa services to prospective students from other countries or English language services. Creative Career Options does not offer English as a Second Language instruction. All instruction occurs in English or Spanish. Language proficiency is documented by:

1. the admissions interview; and
2. receipt of prior education documentation as stated in the admission policy.

FOREIGN TRANSCRIPT EVALUATION

All foreign transcripts and degrees must be evaluated and translated to meet U.S. equivalency.

The following is a sample of foreign transcript and degree evaluators. Creative Career Options does not endorse any evaluators.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

SATISFACTORY PROGRESS

Student progress is evaluated throughout each course on a bi-weekly basis by the instructor. Progress is based on completion of work. Failure to maintain progress will result in a verbal warning and students who are more than 50% behind in required activities will be placed on probation.

PROBATION

Students who are more than 50% behind in required activities and are required to complete make-up work and will be placed on probation for a one week period.

A student who fails probation is subject to withdrawal or secondary probation (an additional period of required make-up work scheduled with the instructor). A student who fails secondary probation will be withdrawn.

GRADING SYSTEM

Checklists are used by instructors to record student acquisition and mastery of assorted skills. Students must achieve a "pass" rating on all quizzes and skill demonstrations.

Grade

P: Pass F: Fail

Definition

Has satisfactorily met all minimum program requirements Has not satisfactorily met all minimum program requirements

Incomplete (I)

If the course has not been completed, the instructor may grant an Incomplete and a two-month extension of the term, at no additional tuition cost, provided that the student is making satisfactory progress and the instructor believes that an extension of time will permit satisfactory completion. At the end of this period, a final grade will be recorded.

Withdraw (W)

The student withdrew or was withdrawn administratively prior to the end of the program.

WITHDRAWAL

A student shall be considered withdrawn from a program if any of the following occurs:

- The student notifies the institution of the student's withdrawal or as of the date of the student's withdrawal, whichever is later.
- The institution terminates the student's enrollment for failure to maintain satisfactory progress; for failure to abide by the rules and regulations of the institution; for absences in excess of maximum set forth by the institution; and/or for failure to meet financial obligations to the School.

ATTENDANCE

Students are required to attend a minimum of 90% of the scheduled hours throughout the entire program. When a student falls below 90% attendance they will be given a verbal warning by their instructor. When a student falls below 85% attendance they will be placed on probation for the remainder of the program. If class time is missed while on probation and make-up hours are not scheduled between the instructor and student the student will be withdrawn from the program.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE POLICY

Should circumstances be such that a leave of absence is to be requested, a student must submit a written request for a leave of absence.

The written notice must contain a statement of the nature of the request. At the discretion of the Chief Academic Officer, a leave may be granted for a reasonable time (maximum of 180 calendar days), as warranted by the circumstances. If a student repeatedly resorts to the use of a leave of absence, and if such applications show a pattern of delays, or should the issuance of a leave of absence be such that it would significantly interfere with the planned completion of a program of study, the Chief Academic Officer may, in his/her sole discretion, dismiss a student from the program and issue the appropriate refunds as may be required.

STUDENT SERVICES

ACADEMIC ADVISING

Academic advising may be initiated by school personnel or the student when the need is identified.

HOUSING

Creative Career Options does not assume responsibility for student housing, does not have dormitory facilities under its control, nor offers student housing assistance. According to rentals.com for Dana Point, CA rental properties start at approximately $1,200 per month.

LIBRARY

Creative Career Options provides students all learning resources required for the program within the curriculum. Students can access the Internet or local libraries for additional resources should they want to obtain additional information related to program content.

EMPLOYMENT ASSISTANCE

Creative Career Options does not provide employment assistance. Creative Career Options cannot and does not guarantee employment or salary.

STUDENT RECORDS

Creative Career Options maintains student records at the institution's administrative office address in a locked fireproof metal cabinet. Student records for all students are kept for five years. Transcripts are kept permanently.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

When a concern occurs, the student is asked to discuss the concern directly with his/her instructor. If a resolution does not occur, the student is to document the concern in writing and make an appointment to speak with the Chief Executive Officer. The formal written concern must state the issue and desired outcome, and should include any documentation that supports the concern. The Chief Academic Officer will review the written statement and any supporting documentation, gather facts, and provide a written response to the student within five business days.

A student or any member of the public may file a complaint about this institution with the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education by calling 888.370.7589 toll-free or by completing a complaint form, which can be obtained on the bureau's Internet Web site www.bppe.ca.gov.

TUITION AND FEES

All fees are subject to change from time to time, without notice.

*Since January 1st 2015 the STRF fee has temporarily been reduced to $0.00

*STRF: $0 for every $1,000 of tuition rounded to the nearest $1,000.

Charges for the period of attendance and the entire program including textbook. No software fee applies.

These are the total charges for the period of attendance and are the total charges for the entire program.

A student must pay all applicable fees, as per the current published fee schedule at the time of signing an enrollment agreement or make other arrangements acceptable to the school.

LOAN

If a student receives a loan to pay for the educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund.

REFUND POLICY

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

1. You have the right to cancel your agreement for a program of instruction, without any penalty or obligations, through attendance at the first class session or the seventh calendar day after enrollment, whichever is later. After the end of the cancellation period, you also have the right to stop school at any time; and you have the right to receive a pro rata refund if you have completed 60 percent or less of the scheduled days in the current payment period in your program through the last day of attendance.
2. Cancellation may occur when the student provides a written notice of cancellation at the following address: 19 Wimbledon Court, Dana Point, CA 92629. This can be done by mail or by hand delivery.
3. The written notice of cancellation, if sent by mail, is effective when deposited in the mail properly addressed with proper postage.
4. The written notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the Enrollment Agreement.
5. If the Enrollment Agreement is cancelled the school will refund the student any money he/she paid, less a registration fee not to exceed $250.00 and within 45 days after the notice of cancellation is received.

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE PROGRAM

You may withdraw from the school at any time after the cancellation period (described above) and receive a pro rata refund if you have completed 60 percent or less of the scheduled days in your program through the last day of attendance. The refund will be less a registration fee not to exceed $250.00. If the student has completed more than 60% of the period of attendance for which the student was charged, the tuition is considered earned and the student will receive no refund.

For the purpose of determining a refund under this section, a student shall be deemed to have withdrawn from a program of instruction when any of the following occurs:

The student notifies the institution of the student's withdrawal or as of the date of the student's withdrawal, whichever is later.

The institution terminates the student's enrollment for failure to maintain satisfactory progress; failure to abide by the rules and regulations of the institution; absences in excess of maximum set forth by the institution; and/or failure to meet financial obligations to the School.

For the purpose of determining the amount of the refund, the date of the student's withdrawal shall be deemed the last date of recorded attendance. The amount owed equals the daily charge for the program (total institutional charge, minus non-refundable fees, divided by the number of days in the program), multiplied by the number of days scheduled to attend, prior to withdrawal.

If any portion of the tuition was paid from the proceeds of a loan or third party, the refund shall be sent to the lender, third party or, if appropriate, to the state or federal agency that guaranteed or reinsured the loan. Any amount of the refund in excess of the unpaid balance of the loan shall be first used to repay any student financial aid programs from which the student received benefits, in proportion to the amount of the benefits received, and any remaining amount shall be paid to the student. If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND

You must pay the state-imposed assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) if all of the following applies to you:

1. You are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition either by cash, guaranteed student loans, or personal loans, and
2. Your total charges are not paid by any third-party payer such as an employer, government program or other payer unless you have a separate agreement to repay the third party.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if either of the following applies:

1. You are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program, or
2. Your total charges are paid by a third party, such as an employer, government program or other payer, and you have no separate agreement to repay the third party.

The State of California created the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic losses suffered by students in an educational program who are California residents, or are enrolled in a residency program attending certain schools regulated by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education.

You may be eligible for STRF if you are a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The school closed before the course of instruction was completed.
2. The school's failure to pay refunds or charges on behalf of a student to a third party for license fees or any other purpose, or to provide equipment or materials for which a charge was collected within 180 days before the closure of the school.
3. The school's failure to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federally guaranteed student loan program as required by law or to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the school prior to closure in excess of tuition and other costs.
4. There was a material failure to comply with the Act or this Division within 30 days before the school closed or, if the material failure began earlier than 30 days prior to closure, the period determined by the Bureau.
5. An inability after diligent efforts to prosecute, prove, and collect on a judgment against the institution for a violation of the Act.

However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.
