STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Sierra Nevada College's cancellation policy is outlined below. It can also be found in the undergraduate catalog.

WITHDRAWAL AND REFUND POLICY

You have the right to cancel your Enrollment Agreement by withdrawing from the Program (leaving Sierra Nevada College with no intention of returning). If you withdraw from Sierra Nevada College, you may be eligible for a tuition adjustment or refund of certain fees (excluding any Application Fee, Registration Fee, Admission Deposit, and any applicable STRF). You have the right to cancel and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

SNC shall refund 100% of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

To cancel this Enrollment Agreement and withdraw, you must complete Sierra Nevada College's Withdrawal form and return it to Sierra Nevada College's Registrar's Office, at 999 Tahoe Blvd., Incline Village, NV 89451 or scan it to registrar@sierranevada.edu. The Withdrawal form and additional information regarding withdrawals can be found on Sierra Nevada College's website at www.sierranevada.edu/resources/current-undergraduate-students/forms-2/.

If you notify Sierra Nevada College of your intent to withdraw, your official date of withdrawal is the date you began your withdrawal process at Sierra Nevada College.

If you do not notify Sierra Nevada College of your intent to withdraw, your official date of withdrawal is:

1. The midpoint of the relevant semester in which you withdraw, or
2. The last date you attended an academically-related activity such as an exam, tutorial or study group, or the last day you turned in a class assignment.

Comprehensive Tuition and Fee Refund Policy

Sierra Nevada College established a refund policy for all students who find it necessary to withdraw from the College. Any questions concerning Sierra Nevada College's refund policy should be directed to Student Accounts.

Tuition and fees are due and payable the first day of the month the semester begins. The option of a monthly payment may be arranged upon request to Student Accounts. If the student withdraws or takes a leave of absence up to 60% of the class or term, tuition will be refunded on a daily pro-rata basis. Based on the method of payment for tuition, refunds will be made either to the student or Student Financial Aid Programs (SFA).

Students receiving federal loans who withdraw during the academic year must arrange for an exit interview with the Financial Aid Office.

The following applies to all students:

If Sierra Nevada College has substantially failed to furnish the training program agreed upon in the enrollment agreement, the institution shall refund to a student all the money the student has paid. If a student cancels his/her enrollment before the start of the class or term, and prior to any early course fee due dates, Sierra Nevada College (SNC) shall refund to the student all the money he/she has paid, except for a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed $250. If a student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

If a student withdraws or is expelled by SNC after the start of class or term and before completing 60% or more of the enrollment period, SNC shall refund to the student a daily pro rata amount of the tuition per payment agreement. Course fees are only refundable during the drop-delete period. After the drop-delete period, course fees are non-refundable. Course fees for travel and field courses that incur significant expenses before the course start date, are due 60 days prior to the course start for courses with fees $1,001 or higher. Early course fees are not refundable after the fee due date. Early fee courses are indicated in the catalog course description and the schedule of classes. Registered students who have not paid course fees by the early due date will be dropped from the course. Students may register after the early course fee due date by paying the course fee in full at the time of registration.

Refund Policy for Dropped Courses

A “drop” is defined as the process by which a student officially disenrolls from an individual course or all courses without incurring academic penalty. For courses 10 weeks or longer that are dropped before the start of classes or during the first week of the term, all tuition and refundable fees will be refunded. For periods of enrollment shorter than 10 weeks, the student has the first day of instruction, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, to drop the course to receive a 100% refund, minus a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed $250. Students receiving financial aid should consult the academic calendar available on the SNC website for specific dates regarding drops and refunds for each term of enrollment.

Refund Policy for Withdrawn Courses

A “withdrawal” is defined as the process by which a student officially disenrolls from an individual course or all courses with academic and/or financial consequences. A withdrawn course is recorded on the official academic transcript with a grade of “W” and the refund is pro-rated. For periods of enrollment 10 weeks or longer, the withdrawal and refund period begins on the first day of the second week of the class or term and continues through the date on which 60% of the class or term is completed. Tuition is refunded on a daily pro rata amount based on the time attended. For periods of enrollment shorter than 10 weeks, the withdrawal period will begin the second day of the class or term and continue until 60% of the class or term is completed. Tuition is refunded on a daily pro rata amount based on the time attended.

Federal Student Aid Credit Balances

Federal Title IV financial aid (Federal Student and Parent Loans, Federal Pell Grants, TEACH Grants, and Federal SEOG Grants) will be applied to all your allowable charges (tuition, fees, room and board) for the current semester. The application of these funds will supersede all SNC payment plans and contracts. Federal law states that any funds over and above allowable charges for the current semester must be refunded to the student within 14 days. Checks over 90 days old are considered stale and may be voided. Students who are Federal Title IV (Federal Student Loans and Grants) financial aid recipients are subject to federal regulations which requires the College to return funds to the federal program if a refund check that is the result of aid is not cashed. Since Federal Guidelines may change from time to time, where federal guidelines on refund calculations are in conflict with State guidelines, SNC will follow the state requirements for refunds to the student or lender.

If a refund is owed, SNC shall pay the refund to the person or entity who paid the tuition within 15 calendar days after the:

1. Date of cancellation by student of his/her enrollment;
2. Date of termination by the institution of the enrollment of a student;
3. Last day of an authorized leave of absence if a student fails to return after the period of authorized absence; or
4. Last day of attendance of a student, whichever is applicable (per NRS 394.449).

For the purposes of this refund policy:

1. The period of a student's attendance shall be measured from the first day of instruction as set forth in the registration/payment agreement through the student's last day of actual attendance, regardless of absences;
2. The period of time for a class or term is the period set forth in the registration/payment agreement;
3. Tuition shall be calculated using the tuition and fees set forth in the payment agreement and does not include books, educational supplies or equipment that are listed separately from the tuition and other fees (per NRS 394.449).

Students receiving financial aid who withdraw from school prior to completing 60% of the semester are subject to the Return of Unearned Title IV Funds Policy located in the financial aid section of this catalog. Refunds for withdrawal from SNC are in accordance with Nevada Revised Statute (NRS) 394.449.

Expulsion Refund Policy

If a student is expelled from SNC as a result of disciplinary action, refunds will be issued based on the policy in effect for all students on the day the student was administratively withdrawn. In accordance with Nevada Revised Statute (NRS) 394.449, a $100 processing fee may be collected at the time of expulsion.

Complete Withdrawal

A complete withdrawal is defined as the process by which a student officially disenrolls from all courses and leaves SNC. In the case of a complete withdrawal, a grade of "W" is recorded for all registered courses in that term. Tuition and refundable fees are refunded according to the rules in effect on the date when the complete withdrawal is reported to SNC. Refunds for withdrawal from SNC are in accordance with Nevada Revised Statute (NRS) 394.449. Students completely withdrawing from SNC must submit an official withdrawal form to the Registrar's Office along with a completed Add/Drop/Withdrawal Form for all classes. Students receiving financial aid who withdraw from school prior to completing 60% of the semester are subject to the Return of Unearned Title IV Funds Policy located in the financial aid section of this catalog. Students who withdraw from SNC for two or more consecutive semesters who wish to return must submit an application for readmission to the Office of Admission prior to returning.

Official Withdrawal Policy

Students who leave the institution and officially withdraw from all classes are considered to be withdrawn according to the date on the official withdrawal notification through the Registrar's Office for the purpose of the Department of Education's "Return of Unearned Title IV Funds" policy.

Unofficial Withdrawal Policy

Students who leave the institution without officially withdrawing from all classes are considered withdrawn according to the last date of attendance for purposes of the Department of Education's "Return of Unearned Title IV Funds" calculations. SNC will use the date of the last academically related activity to determine the withdrawal date. If this date is not available, the midpoint will be used.

Federal regulations have been enacted, which state that students may forfeit a portion of their Federal student financial assistance if they fail to complete the program of study in which they were enrolled.

The policy affects students who:

- A. Received or were eligible to receive federal student financial assistance authorized under Title IV of the Higher Education Act (HEA); i.e., Federal Pell Grants, Federal SEOG awards, or Stafford/PLUS loans awarded under the Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL) or Federal Direct Student Loan (FDSL) programs.
- B. Withdrew or were terminated from the institution during the first 60% of any payment period or period of enrollment.

Payment periods are defined as a Semester.

Students who do not begin attendance in any course will have 100% of the Title IV aid returned to the respective programs.

Eligible Title IV aid recipients who fail to complete over 60% of a payment period or period of enrollment are considered to have not earned all of the Federal aid that may have previously been awarded for that payment period or period of enrollment. Accordingly, a required calculation is performed to determine the portion of the unearned Federal student aid that must be returned to the U.S. Department of Education. In many cases, the Return of Unearned Title IV Funds calculations result in the student owing tuition and fees to the institution that would otherwise have been paid with federal student aid. This policy may also result in the student owing a refund of unearned Federal aid to the Department of Education. Students will receive notification in either case.

Return of Unearned Title IV Funds

This policy is in effect for any Title IV recipient who ceases to be enrolled on or after October 7, 2000. This policy replaces the Federal prorata and Federal refund policies previously enacted from the 1992 HEA Amendments.

Federal regulations have been enacted, which state that students may forfeit a portion of their Federal student financial assistance if they fail to complete the program of study in which they were enrolled. The policy affects students who:

- A. Received or were eligible to receive federal student financial assistance authorized under Title IV of the Higher Education Act (HEA); i.e., Federal Pell Grants, Federal SEOG awards, or Stafford/PLUS loans awarded under the Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL) or Federal Direct Student Loan (FDSL) programs.
- B. On or after October 7, 2000, withdrew or were terminated from the institution during the first 60% of any payment period or period of enrollment.

Payment periods are defined as a Semester.

Eligible Title IV aid recipients who fail to complete over 60% of a payment period or period of enrollment are considered to have not earned all of the Federal aid that may have previously been awarded for that payment period or period of enrollment. Accordingly, a required calculation is performed to determine the portion of the unearned Federal student aid that must be returned to the U.S. Department of Education. This calculation is done before a tuition refund calculation is performed in accordance with the institution's refund policy. In many cases, the Return of Unearned Title IV Funds calculations result in the student owing tuition and fees to the institution that would otherwise have been paid with federal student aid. This policy may also result in the student owing a refund of unearned Federal aid to the Department of Education.

Refunds for a Drop or Withdrawal

If a student drops or withdraws from class(es) and a refund is due, the financial aid sources must be reimbursed in the following order:

1. Unsubsidized Loans
2. Subsidized Loans
3. Plus Loans
4. Pell Grant
5. FSEOG
6. Teach Grant

If the student withdraws or takes a leave of absence up to 60% of the class or term, tuition will be refunded on a daily pro-rata basis. Based on the method of payment for tuition, refunds will be made either to the student or Student Financial Aid Programs (SFA).

Students receiving federal loans who withdraw during the academic year must arrange for an exit interview with the Financial Aid Office.

The following applies to all students:

If Sierra Nevada College has substantially failed to furnish the training program agreed upon in the enrollment agreement, the institution shall refund to a student all the money the student has paid. If a student cancels his/her enrollment before the start of the class or term, and prior to any early course fee due dates, Sierra Nevada College (SNC) shall refund to the student all the money he/she has paid, except for a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed $250. If a student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

If a student withdraws or is expelled by SNC after the start of class or term and before completing 60% or more of the enrollment period, SNC shall refund to the student a daily pro rata amount of the tuition per payment agreement. Course fees are only refundable during the drop-delete period. After the drop-delete period, course fees are non-refundable. Course fees for travel and field courses that incur significant expenses before the course start date, are due 60 days prior to the course start for courses with fees $1,001 or higher. Early course fees are not refundable after the fee due date. Early fee courses are indicated in the catalog course description and the schedule of classes. Registered students who have not paid course fees by the early due date will be dropped from the course. Students may register after the early course fee due date by paying the course fee in full at the time of registration.

Refund Policy for Dropped Courses

A “drop” is defined as the process by which a student officially disenrolls from an individual course or all courses without incurring academic penalty. For courses 10 weeks or longer that are dropped before the start of classes or during the first week of the term, all tuition and refundable fees will be refunded. For periods of enrollment shorter than 10 weeks, the student has the first day of instruction, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, to drop the course to receive a 100% refund, minus a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed $250. Students receiving financial aid should consult the academic calendar available on the SNC website for specific dates regarding drops and refunds for each term of enrollment.

Refund Policy for Withdrawn Courses

A “withdrawal” is defined as the process by which a student officially disenrolls from an individual course or all courses with academic and/or financial consequences. A withdrawn course is recorded on the official academic transcript with a grade of “W” and the refund is pro-rated. For periods of enrollment 10 weeks or longer, the withdrawal and refund period begins on the first day of the second week of the class or term and continues through the date on which 60% of the class or term is completed. Tuition is refunded on a daily pro rata amount based on the time attended. For periods of enrollment shorter than 10 weeks, the withdrawal period will begin the second day of the class or term and continue until 60% of the class or term is completed. Tuition is refunded on a daily pro rata amount based on the time attended.

Federal Student Aid Credit Balances

Federal Title IV financial aid (Federal Student and Parent Loans, Federal Pell Grants, TEACH Grants, and Federal SEOG Grants) will be applied to all your allowable charges (tuition, fees, room and board) for the current semester. The application of these funds will supersede all SNC payment plans and contracts. Federal law states that any funds over and above allowable charges for the current semester must be refunded to the student within 14 days. Checks over 90 days old are considered stale and may be voided. Students who are Federal Title IV (Federal Student Loans and Grants) financial aid recipients are subject to federal regulations which requires the College to return funds to the federal program if a refund check that is the result of aid is not cashed. Since Federal Guidelines may change from time to time, where federal guidelines on refund calculations are in conflict with State guidelines, SNC will follow the state requirements for refunds to the student or lender.

If a refund is owed, SNC shall pay the refund to the person or entity who paid the tuition within 15 calendar days after the:

1. Date of cancellation by student of his/her enrollment;
2. Date of termination by the institution of the enrollment of a student;
3. Last day of an authorized leave of absence if a student fails to return after the period of authorized absence; or
4. Last day of attendance of a student, whichever is applicable (per NRS 394.449).

For the purposes of this refund policy:

1. The period of a student's attendance shall be measured from the first day of instruction as set forth in the registration/payment agreement through the student's last day of actual attendance, regardless of absences;
2. The period of time for a class or term is the period set forth in the registration/payment agreement;
3. Tuition shall be calculated using the tuition and fees set forth in the payment agreement and does not include books, educational supplies or equipment that are listed separately from the tuition and other fees (per NRS 394.449).

Students receiving financial aid who withdraw from school prior to completing 60% of the semester are subject to the Return of Unearned Title IV Funds Policy located in the financial aid section of this catalog. Refunds for withdrawal from SNC are in accordance with Nevada Revised Statute (NRS) 394.449.

Expulsion Refund Policy

If a student is expelled from SNC as a result of disciplinary action, refunds will be issued based on the policy in effect for all students on the day the student was administratively withdrawn. In accordance with Nevada Revised Statute (NRS) 394.449, a $100 processing fee may be collected at the time of expulsion.

Complete Withdrawal

A complete withdrawal is defined as the process by which a student officially disenrolls from all courses and leaves SNC. In the case of a complete withdrawal, a grade of "W" is recorded for all registered courses in that term. Tuition and refundable fees are refunded according to the rules in effect on the date when the complete withdrawal is reported to SNC. Refunds for withdrawal from SNC are in accordance with Nevada Revised Statute (NRS) 394.449. Students completely withdrawing from SNC must submit an official withdrawal form to the Registrar's Office along with a completed Add/Drop/Withdrawal Form for all classes. Students receiving financial aid who withdraw from school prior to completing 60% of the semester are subject to the Return of Unearned Title IV Funds Policy located in the financial aid section of this catalog. Students who withdraw from SNC for two or more consecutive semesters who wish to return must submit an application for readmission to the Office of Admission prior to returning.

Official Withdrawal Policy

Students who leave the institution and officially withdraw from all classes are considered to be withdrawn according to the date on the official withdrawal notification through the Registrar's Office for the purpose of the Department of Education's "Return of Unearned Title IV Funds" policy.

Unofficial Withdrawal Policy

Students who leave the institution without officially withdrawing from all classes are considered withdrawn according to the last date of attendance for purposes of the Department of Education's "Return of Unearned Title IV Funds" calculations. SNC will use the date of the last academically related activity to determine the withdrawal date. If this date is not available, the midpoint will be used.

Federal regulations have been enacted, which state that students may forfeit a portion of their Federal student financial assistance if they fail to complete the program of study in which they were enrolled.

The policy affects students who:

- A. Received or were eligible to receive federal student financial assistance authorized under Title IV of the Higher Education Act (HEA); i.e., Federal Pell Grants, Federal SEOG awards, or Stafford/PLUS loans awarded under the Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL) or Federal Direct Student Loan (FDSL) programs.
- B. Withdrew or were terminated from the institution during the first 60% of any payment period or period of enrollment.

Payment periods are defined as a Semester.

Students who do not begin attendance in any course will have 100% of the Title IV aid returned to the respective programs.

Eligible Title IV aid recipients who fail to complete over 60% of a payment period or period of enrollment are considered to have not earned all of the Federal aid that may have previously been awarded for that payment period or period of enrollment. Accordingly, a required calculation is performed to determine the portion of the unearned Federal student aid that must be returned to the U.S. Department of Education. In many cases, the Return of Unearned Title IV Funds calculations result in the student owing tuition and fees to the institution that would otherwise have been paid with federal student aid. This policy may also result in the student owing a refund of unearned Federal aid to the Department of Education. Students will receive notification in either case.

Return of Unearned Title IV Funds

This policy is in effect for any Title IV recipient who ceases to be enrolled on or after October 7, 2000. This policy replaces the Federal prorata and Federal refund policies previously enacted from the 1992 HEA Amendments.

This calculation is done before a tuition refund calculation is performed in accordance with the institution's refund policy. This policy may also result in the student owing a refund of unearned Federal aid to the Department of Education.

Refunds for a Drop or Withdrawal

If a student drops or withdraws from class(es) and a refund is due, the financial aid sources must be reimbursed in the following order:

1. Unsubsidized Loans
2. Subsidized Loans
3. Plus Loans
4. Pell Grant
5. FSEOG
6. Teach Grant

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Sierra Nevada College's cancellation policy is outlined below. It can also be found in the undergraduate catalog.

WITHDRAWAL AND REFUND POLICY

You have the right to cancel your Enrollment Agreement by withdrawing from the Program (leaving Sierra Nevada College with no intention of returning). If you withdraw from Sierra Nevada College, you may be eligible for a tuition adjustment or refund of certain fees (excluding any Application Fee, Registration Fee, Admission Deposit, and any applicable STRF). You have the right to cancel and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

SNC shall refund 100% of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

To cancel this Enrollment Agreement and withdraw, you must complete Sierra Nevada College's Withdrawal form and return it to Sierra Nevada College's Registrar's Office, at 999 Tahoe Blvd., Incline Village, NV 89451 or scan it to registrar@sierranevada.edu. The Withdrawal form and additional information regarding withdrawals can be found on Sierra Nevada College's website at www.sierranevada.edu/resources/current-undergraduate-students/forms-2/.

If you notify Sierra Nevada College of your intent to withdraw, your official date of withdrawal is the date you began your withdrawal process at Sierra Nevada College.

If you do not notify Sierra Nevada College of your intent to withdraw, your official date of withdrawal is:

1. The midpoint of the relevant semester in which you withdraw, or
2. The last date you attended an academically-related activity such as an exam, tutorial or study group, or the last day you turned in a class assignment.

Comprehensive Tuition and Fee Refund Policy

Sierra Nevada College established a refund policy for all students who find it necessary to withdraw from the College. Any questions concerning Sierra Nevada College's refund policy should be directed to Student Accounts.

Tuition and fees are due and payable the first day of the month the semester begins. The option of a monthly payment may be arranged upon request to Student Accounts. Based on the method of payment for tuition, refunds will be made either to the student or Student Financial Aid Programs (SFA).

If a refund is owed, SNC shall pay the refund to the person or entity who paid the tuition within 15 calendar days after the:

1. Date of cancellation by student of his/her enrollment;
2. Date of termination by the institution of the enrollment of a student;
3. Last day of an authorized leave of absence if a student fails to return after the period of authorized absence; or

Refunds for withdrawal from SNC are in accordance with Nevada Revised Statute (NRS) 394.449.

Expulsion Refund Policy

If a student is expelled from SNC as a result of disciplinary action, refunds will be issued based on the policy in effect for all students on the day the student was administratively withdrawn. In accordance with Nevada Revised Statute (NRS) 394.449, a $100 processing fee may be collected at the time of expulsion.

Complete Withdrawal

A complete withdrawal is defined as the process by which a student officially disenrolls from all courses and leaves SNC. In the case of a complete withdrawal, a grade of "W" is recorded for all registered courses in that term. Tuition and refundable fees are refunded according to the rules in effect on the date when the complete withdrawal is reported to SNC. Refunds for withdrawal from SNC are in accordance with Nevada Revised Statute (NRS) 394.449. Students completely withdrawing from SNC must submit an official withdrawal form to the Registrar's Office along with a completed Add/Drop/Withdrawal Form for all classes. Students receiving financial aid who withdraw from school prior to completing 60% of the semester are subject to the Return of Unearned Title IV Funds Policy located in the financial aid section of this catalog. Students who withdraw from SNC for two or more consecutive semesters who wish to return must submit an application for readmission to the Office of Admission prior to returning.

Official Withdrawal Policy

Students who leave the institution and officially withdraw from all classes are considered to be withdrawn according to the date on the official withdrawal notification through the Registrar's Office for the purpose of the Department of Education's "Return of Unearned Title IV Funds" policy.

Unofficial Withdrawal Policy

Students who leave the institution without officially withdrawing from all classes are considered withdrawn according to the last date of attendance for purposes of the Department of Education's "Return of Unearned Title IV Funds" calculations. SNC will use the date of the last academically related activity to determine the withdrawal date. If this date is not available, the midpoint will be used.

Federal regulations have been enacted, which state that students may forfeit a portion of their Federal student financial assistance if they fail to complete the program of study in which they were enrolled.

- B. Withdrew or were terminated from the institution during the first 60% of any payment period or period of enrollment.

Payment periods are defined as a Semester.

Students who do not begin attendance in any course will have 100% of the Title IV aid returned to the respective programs.

Eligible Title IV aid recipients who fail to complete over 60% of a payment period or period of enrollment are considered to have not earned all of the Federal aid that may have previously been awarded for that payment period or period of enrollment. Accordingly, a required calculation is performed to determine the portion of the unearned Federal student aid that must be returned to the U.S. Department of Education. In many cases, the Return of Unearned Title IV Funds calculations result in the student owing tuition and fees to the institution that would otherwise have been paid with federal student aid. This policy may also result in the student owing a refund of unearned Federal aid to the Department of Education. Students will receive notification in either case.

Return of Unearned Title IV Funds

This policy is in effect for any Title IV recipient who ceases to be enrolled on or after October 7, 2000. This policy replaces the Federal prorata and Federal refund policies previously enacted from the 1992 HEA Amendments.

Refunds for a Drop or Withdrawal

If a student drops or withdraws from class(es) and a refund is due, the financial aid sources must be reimbursed in the following order:

1. Unsubsidized Loans
2. Subsidized Loans
3. Plus Loans
4. Pell Grant
5. FSEOG
