DEFINITIONS

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

STUDENT’S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The student has the right to cancel and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. The amount retained for the registration fee is zero dollars ($0.00).

To cancel this agreement, you may use the cancellation form provided or give written notice to Dalila Ahumada, Executive Director; Arriba Juntos; 1850 Mission Street, San Francisco, CA 94103. If you fail to return equipment or materials issued by the course, their value will be deducted from your refund. All refunds will be made within thirty days.

Refund Information:

The student has a right to a full refund of all charges for the amount of $0 for a registration fee if he/she cancels this agreement by the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. In addition, the student may withdraw from a course after instructions have started and receive a pro-rata refund for the unused portion of the tuition and other refundable charges if the student has completed 60% or less of the instruction. For example, if the student completes only the 30 hours on a 90-hour course and paid $300.00 tuition, the student would receive a refund of $200.00.

$300 x	(60 Clock Hours/	90 Clock Hours)=	$200
Amount Paid	Instruction Paid for but not received	Instruction for Which the Student has Paid	Refund Amount

The school will also refund money collected for sending to a third party on the student’s behalf such as for license or application fees. If the school cancels or discontinues a course or educational program, the school will make a full refund of all charges.

If the student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund.

If the student defaults on a federal or state loan, both the following may occur:

Arriba Juntos

1850 Mission Street
San Francisco, CA 94103
415-487-3240
www.arribajuntos.org

- 1) The Federal or state government or loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including garnishing an income tax refund.
- 2) The student may not be eligible for any other government financial assistance at another institution until the loan is repaid.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

You must issue your cancellation in writing to your case manager in order to be eligible for refund. If you fail to return equipment or materials issued by the course, their value will be deducted from your refund. All refunds will be made within thirty days.

The date by which the student must exercise his or her right to cancel or withdraw is: _____

To cancel this agreement, you may use the cancellation form provided or give written notice to Dalila Ahumada, Executive Director; Arriba Juntos; 1850 Mission Street, San Francisco, CA 94103. If you fail to return equipment or materials issued by the course, their value will be deducted from your refund. All refunds will be made within thirty days.

Refund Information:

The student has a right to a full refund of all charges for the amount of $0 for a registration fee if he/she cancels this agreement by the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. In addition, the student may withdraw from a course after instructions have started and receive a pro-rata refund for the unused portion of the tuition and other refundable charges if the student has completed 60% or less of the instruction. For example, if the student completes only the 30 hours on a 90-hour course and paid $300.00 tuition, the student would receive a refund of $200.00.

$300 x	(60 Clock Hours/	90 Clock Hours)=	$200
Amount Paid	Instruction Paid for but not Received	Instruction for Which the Student has Paid	Refund Amount

The school will also refund money collected for sending to a third party on the student’s behalf such as for license or application fees. If the school cancels or discontinues a course or educational program, the school will make a full refund of all charges.

If the student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund.

If the student defaults on a federal or state loan, both the following may occur:

- 5) The Federal or state government or loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including garnishing an income tax refund.
- 6) The student may not be eligible for any other government financial assistance at another institution until the loan is repaid.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

You must issue your cancellation in writing to your case manager in order to be eligible for refund. If you fail to return equipment or materials issued by the course, their value will be deducted from your refund. All refunds will be made within thirty days.

DEFINITIONS

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
