MISSION

The mission of ROSSTON SCHOOL OF HAIR DESIGN is to provide training in the skills and techniques of barbering by qualified faculty in preparation for licensure and success as an entry-level barber or barber stylist in the community the graduate chooses to provide service to.

OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of a program offered at ROSSTON SCHOOL OF HAIR DESIGN, graduates will be prepared to:

- Pass the California Board of Barbering and Cosmetology barber examination.
- Function effectively in an entry-level position as a barber.
- Apply haircutting and styling skills and creative techniques.
- Provide shampooing and scalp treatments, shaving, facials, hair coloring, waving, relaxing, and other services to clientele.
- Observe rules of sanitation and hygiene in all situations.
- Practice the ethics and business skills of a successful professional in the specialty area of barbering.

HISTORY OF ROSSTON SCHOOL OF HAIR DESIGN

The school was founded in the early 1950s by Sherman Trusty as the American Barber College, which was acquired by Rosston Enterprises in 1973, becoming the Rosston School of Hair Design. In 1989, Olivas, Inc. purchased the school. In 2010, the school was acquired by the Padma Corporation.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

HOURS

Academic credit is measured in clock hours. One hour of instructional time is defined as a sixty-minute period.

SATISFACTORY PROGRESS – ACADEMIC AVERAGE AND ATTENDANCE

ROSTON SCHOOL OF HAIR DESIGN expects its students to maintain Satisfactory Progress as established by this institution, the student must:

- Maintain a cumulative academic average of “C” (70%) or better;
- Maintain at least an 67% attendance rate of the scheduled hours; and
- Complete the program within the maximum time frame, which is 150% or one and one-half (1 1/2) times the length of the program.

Program	Expected Time Frame 100%	Maximum Time Frame 150%
----------------	-------------------------------------	------------------------------------

Barbering	38 Weeks	75 Weeks

ABSENCES

All hours attended are recorded by using a time clock that each student is responsible for clocking in and out. All absences are tracked and any student absent for 21 days consecutive calendar days will be withdrawn from the program.

TARDINESS AND EARLY DEPARTURES

Students who arrive after theory class has begun are considered tardy. Students who are tardy may not clock in until theory class is over and may not attend theory class. Students who need to leave class early must notify his/her instructor.

Students who are habitually tardy or leave class early (5 times in one month) will be advised, and if tardiness or early departures continue he/she may be placed on probation or withdrawn.

APPEALS

Students who wish to appeal the determination that they are not maintaining satisfactory progress must submit a letter to the school administration. The letter should describe any circumstances the student feels deserve further consideration. A decision relating to the appeal will be made with ten (10) business days and the student notified accordingly.

GRADING SYSTEM

Students are evaluated on a regular basis on theory, practical, and clinical work. The evaluations are measured on a standard percentile basis and the percentage equated to a letter grade. Evaluation forms are issued to the student based on the program hours completed as stated below. This evaluation form reflects the overall attendance and academic progress of the student. Students must maintain a “C” (70%) average to maintain satisfactory academic status. The system detailed below is the system utilized by the school:

100% - 90%	A	Superior Performance
89% - 80%	B	Above Average
79% - 70%	C	Average
69%-Under	F	Fail

SATISFACTORY PROGRESS EVALUATION PERIODS

Program	25% of Program Length	50% of Program Length	75% of Program Length	100% of Program Length
Barbering	375 Hours	750 Hours	1125 Hours	1500 Hours

PROBATION AND DISMISSAL

If a student fails to maintain an overall average of “C” or 67% attendance a consultation with the school official will be scheduled. At that time, the student will be placed on probation for a four (4) week period. At the end of the probationary period, if the student has not satisfied the specified requirements, the student will be withdrawn from school. Dismissal from school may also result from uncooperative behavior.

MAKE-UP HOURS

Students may make up missed hours. A student must make-up hours during days/times not scheduled. All make-up time must be arranged and approved by an instructor prior to attending make-up hours.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE POLICY

On occasion students may experience extended personal, medical or other issues that make it difficult to attend class. Under such circumstances, ROSSTON SCHOOL OF HAIR DESIGN may authorize a student to take a leave of absence (LOA) from the program for up to 60 days. The LOA must be requested in writing by the student and must be approved by an administrator. An LOA request form must be filled out, and the date of leave and return must be stated on the form prior to administration approving the LOA. Students are advised to not request a leave of absence unless it is absolutely necessary. Under no circumstances can the school grant more than one (1) LOA within a 12-month period. Students on an LOA will not be assessed additional charges or tuition. Students returning from an authorized LOA will retain all credit for clock hours completed and will be returned to the academic progress status they held prior to the start of the leave of absence. Students who fail to return from an LOA will be considered withdrawn as of the last class day of attendance prior to the start of the leave.

STUDENT SERVICES

ACADEMIC ADVISING

Academic advising may be initiated by school personnel or the student when the need is identified.

Email: rosstonbc@gmail.com
Web Site: www.rosstonbarbercollege.com

All grievances, regardless of the nature, will be turned over to the Chief Operating Officer and reviewed. The Chief Operating Officer will evaluate the grievance(s) and set up an appointment with the student within 5 days from the receipt of the form. If the grievance is an emergency, it will be addressed within 24 hours.

The Chief Operating Officer is the initial contact for any ethics issues or grievances about classes, students, instructors, staff members, or situations. Students who have ethics concerns may contact the school to request direct contact information for the Chief Operating Officer. Any discussion with the Chief Operating Officer is completely confidential.

A student or any member of the public may file a complaint about this institution with the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education by calling 888.370.7589 toll-free or by completing a complaint form, which can be obtained on the Bureau's Internet Web site, www.bppe.ca.gov.

STUDENT CONDUCT

The rules and regulations of ROSSTON SCHOOL OF HAIR DESIGN are designed to help the student learn professional habits at the start of his/her professional career. All students must comply with sanitary requirements and not interfere with other students. The student shall dress in a professional manner. Students must comply with all laws (federal and state), particularly laws relating to barbering. Students may be held liable for damages to the school and its equipment.

CANCELLATION, WITHDRAWAL, AND REFUND POLICY

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

- You have the right to cancel your agreement for a program of instruction, without any penalty or obligations, through attendance at the first-class session or the seventh calendar day after enrollment, whichever is later. After the end of the cancellation period, you also have the right to stop school at any time; and you have the right to receive a pro rata refund if you have completed 60 percent or less of the scheduled hours in your program through the last day of attendance.
 - Cancellation may occur when the student provides a written notice of cancellation at the following address: Rosston School of Hair Design, 1442 W Holt Blvd Ontario CA 91762. This can be done by mail or by hand delivery.
3. The written notice of cancellation, if sent by mail, is effective when deposited in the mail properly addressed with proper postage.
 4. The written notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the Enrollment Agreement.
 5. If the Enrollment Agreement is cancelled the school will refund the student any money he/she paid, less a registration or administration fee not to exceed $250.00, and less any deduction for equipment not returned in good condition, within 45 days after the notice of cancellation is received.

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE PROGRAM

You may withdraw from the school at any time after the cancellation period (described above) and receive a pro rata refund if you have completed 60 percent or less of the scheduled hours in your program through the last day of attendance. The refund will be less a registration or administration fee not to exceed $250.00, and less any deduction for equipment not returned in good condition, within 45 days of withdrawal. If the student has completed more than 60% of the period of attendance for which the student was charged, the tuition is considered earned and the student will receive no refund.

For the purpose of determining a refund under this section, a student shall be deemed to have withdrawn from a program of instruction when any of the following occurs:

- The student notifies the institution of the student's withdrawal or as of the date of the student's withdrawal, whichever is later.
- The institution terminates the student's enrollment for failure to maintain satisfactory progress; failure to abide by the rules and regulations of the institution; absences in excess of maximum set forth by the institution; and/or failure to meet financial obligations to the School.
- The student has failed to attend class for 21 days.
- The student fails to return from a leave of absence.

For the purpose of determining the amount of the refund, the date of the student's withdrawal shall be deemed the last date of recorded attendance. The amount owed equals the hourly charge for the program (total institutional charge, minus non-refundable fees, divided by the number of hours in the program), multiplied by the number of hours scheduled to attend, prior to withdrawal. For the purpose of determining when the refund must be paid, the student shall be deemed to have withdrawn at the end of 21 consecutive days

If any portion of the tuition was paid from the proceeds of a loan or third party, the refund shall be sent to the lender, third party or, if appropriate, to the state or federal agency that guaranteed or reinsured the loan. Any amount of the refund in excess of the unpaid balance of the loan shall be first used to repay any student financial aid programs from which the student received benefits, in proportion to the amount of the benefits received, and any remaining amount shall be paid to the student.

TUITION AND FEES

Program	Application Fee Non-Refundable	*Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) Non-Refundable	Books If used, non-Refundable	Supplies If used, non-Refundable	Tools If used, non-Refundable	Tuition	Total Cost
Barbering	$250.00	0	$250.00	$300.00	$700.00	$5,000.00	$6,500.00

*STRF is determined annual by the State of California. Currently there are no fees.

Charges for the period of attendance and the entire program.

Additional Fee, paid by the graduate: California Board of Barbering and Cosmetology, Barbering examination and initial license fee $ 125.00.

Additional Fees, if applicable: Return check fee $15.00

All books, supplies and tools for the program selected will be furnished by the school at the stated charge. A complete list of required books, supplies, and/or equipment is provided to each student. Lost, mutilated, or stolen items will be replaced at the expense of the student.

PAYMENT

ROSSON SCHOOL OF HAIR DESIGN provides the students a ten month payment at a zero-percent interest rate.

- Barbering program, $750.00 down payment with 10 monthly payments of about $575.

FINANCIAL AID

ROSSON SCHOOL OF HAIR DESIGN is not accredited at this time and does not participate in any federal or state financial aid programs.

LOAN

If a student receives a loan to pay for the educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund.

STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND (Currently the School is not collecting any STRF from students)

You must pay the state-imposed assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) if all of the following applies to you:

- You are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition either by cash, guaranteed student loans, or personal loans, and
- Your total charges are not paid by any third-party payer such as an employer, government program or other payer unless you have a separate agreement to repay the third party.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if either of the following applies:

- You are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program, or
- Your total charges are paid by a third party, such as an employer, government program or other payer, and you have no separate agreement to repay the third party.

The State of California created the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic losses suffered by students in an educational program who are California residents, or are enrolled in a residency program attending certain schools regulated by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education.

You may be eligible for STRF if you are a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

- The school closed before the program of instruction was completed.
- The school's failure to pay refunds or charges on behalf of a student to a third party for license fees or any other purpose, or to provide equipment or materials for which a charge was collected within 180 days before the closure of the school.
- The school's failure to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federally guaranteed student loan program as required by law or to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the school prior to closure in excess of tuition and other costs.
- There was a material failure to comply with the Act or this Division within 30 days before the school closed or, if the material failure began earlier than 30 days prior to closure, the period determined by the Bureau.
- An inability after diligent efforts to prosecute, prove, and collect on a judgment against the institution for a violation of the Act.

However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.
