Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.

- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

You may cancel this enrollment agreement or withdraw from OCCM and receive the applicable refund by providing a written notice to the Office of Admissions and Registrar. Please see the Cancellation and Refund Procedure section for details.

Under the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009, student has a right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a full refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation and Refund Procedure

In accordance with California law, OCCM will either pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal.

Notice of cancellation made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later;

Student may cancel or withdraw from the program with full refund of all tuition and fees paid, except for the registration fee and withdrawal process fee, in sum of $230.00. The request for cancellation or withdrawal must be made in writing and submitted to the Office of Admissions and Registrar. If the cancellation or the withdrawal is made before the commencement of classes, the written request alone will suffice; if the request is made by mail, it must be postmarked before the first date of classes. If the request is made after the attendance of the classes on the first day, the written request and the completed student withdrawal form must be submitted to the Office of Admissions and Registrar in person during the business hour.

After the second day of classes, or from the eighth day of enrollment;

Student must submit written request for the withdrawal to the Office of Admissions and Registrar along with completed student withdrawal form in person to the office during the business hour. The withdrawal will not be made official without the receipt of request and the form. Online submission will not be accepted. The date the both withdrawal form and the written request received by the office will be used as the official date of withdrawal to base any tuition and fee refund. Processing fee of $80.00 will be withheld from the refund. The refund schedule is as follows; (6.66% per week, decimal dropped)

Withdrawal submitted before the 7th day of enrollment	100%
