Definitions

- "Number of Students Who Began the Program" means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.

- "Students Available for Graduation" is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.

- "Number of On-time Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.

- "On-time Completion Rate" is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.

- "150% Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).

- "150% Completion Rate" is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.

- "Graduates Available for Employment" means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.

- "Graduates Unavailable for Employment" means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.

- "Graduates Employed in the Field" means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.

- "Placement Rate Employed in the Field" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.

- "Number of Graduates Taking Exam" is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

- "First Available Exam Date" is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.

- "Number Who Passed First Available Exam" is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.

- "Salary" is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.

- "No Salary Information Reported" is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The student has a right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges, less non-refundable charges, paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. The date by which you must exercise your right to cancel or withdraw and receive a refund is: _____.

All students are advised that a notice of cancellations must be submitted in writing to the address or email above. The Academy shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee, not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250), and any other nonrefundable fees, if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. If an applicant is rejected for enrollment by the institution, or if a prospective student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant, less the nonrefundable application fee and any nonrefundable fees not to exceed a maximum total of five hundred dollars ($500) as itemized in the enrollment agreement. If an applicant accepted by the institution cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes, the institution will refund all monies paid, less the nonrefundable application fee and any nonrefundable fees not to exceed a maximum total of five hundred dollars ($500) as itemized in the enrollment agreement. If the Academy cancels or discontinues a course or educational program, the Academy will refund all unearned institutional charges paid to the Academy.
