Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and that a withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

The Institutions shall refund 100 percent (100%) of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

A refund policy for the return of unearned institutional charges if the student cancels an enrollment agreement or withdraws during a period of attendance. The refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent (60%) or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund.

The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal.

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the campus of High Desert Medical College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Director of Admissions. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of "Director of Admissions." The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within ten (10) days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in good condition within the ten (10) day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the ten (10) day period and in good condition, within 45 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and that a withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

The Institutions shall refund 100 percent (100%) of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

A refund policy for the return of unearned institutional charges if the student cancels an enrollment agreement or withdraws during a period of attendance. The refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent (60%) or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund.

The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal.

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the campus of High Desert Medical College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Director of Admissions. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of "Director of Admissions." The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within ten (10) days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in good condition within the ten (10) day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the ten (10) day period and in good condition, within 45 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and that a withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

The Institutions shall refund 100 percent (100%) of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

A refund policy for the return of unearned institutional charges if the student cancels an enrollment agreement or withdraws during a period of attendance. The refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent (60%) or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund.

The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal.

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the campus of High Desert Medical College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Director of Admissions. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of "Director of Admissions." The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within ten (10) days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in good condition within the ten (10) day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the ten (10) day period and in good condition, within 45 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and that a withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

The Institutions shall refund 100 percent (100%) of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

A refund policy for the return of unearned institutional charges if the student cancels an enrollment agreement or withdraws during a period of attendance. The refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent (60%) or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund.

The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal.

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the campus of High Desert Medical College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Director of Admissions. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of "Director of Admissions." The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within ten (10) days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in good condition within the ten (10) day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the ten (10) day period and in good condition, within 45 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and that a withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

The Institutions shall refund 100 percent (100%) of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

A refund policy for the return of unearned institutional charges if the student cancels an enrollment agreement or withdraws during a period of attendance. The refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent (60%) or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund.

The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal.

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the campus of High Desert Medical College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Director of Admissions. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of "Director of Admissions." The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within ten (10) days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in good condition within the ten (10) day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the ten (10) day period and in good condition, within 45 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and that a withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

The Institutions shall refund 100 percent (100%) of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

A refund policy for the return of unearned institutional charges if the student cancels an enrollment agreement or withdraws during a period of attendance. The refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent (60%) or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund.

The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal.

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the campus of High Desert Medical College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Director of Admissions. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of "Director of Admissions." The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within ten (10) days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in good condition within the ten (10) day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the ten (10) day period and in good condition, within 45 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and that a withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

The Institutions shall refund 100 percent (100%) of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

A refund policy for the return of unearned institutional charges if the student cancels an enrollment agreement or withdraws during a period of attendance. The refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent (60%) or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund.

The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal.

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the campus of High Desert Medical College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Director of Admissions. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of "Director of Admissions." The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within ten (10) days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in good condition within the ten (10) day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the ten (10) day period and in good condition, within 45 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and that a withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

The Institutions shall refund 100 percent (100%) of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

A refund policy for the return of unearned institutional charges if the student cancels an enrollment agreement or withdraws during a period of attendance. The refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent (60%) or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund.

The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal.

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the campus of High Desert Medical College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Director of Admissions. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of "Director of Admissions." The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within ten (10) days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in good condition within the ten (10) day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the ten (10) day period and in good condition, within 45 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and that a withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

The Institutions shall refund 100 percent (100%) of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

A refund policy for the return of unearned institutional charges if the student cancels an enrollment agreement or withdraws during a period of attendance. The refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent (60%) or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund.

The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal.

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the campus of High Desert Medical College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Director of Admissions. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of "Director of Admissions." The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within ten (10) days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in good condition within the ten (10) day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the ten (10) day period and in good condition, within 45 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and that a withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

The Institutions shall refund 100 percent (100%) of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

A refund policy for the return of unearned institutional charges if the student cancels an enrollment agreement or withdraws during a period of attendance. The refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent (60%) or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund.

The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal.

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the campus of High Desert Medical College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Director of Admissions. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of "Director of Admissions." The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within ten (10) days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in good condition within the ten (10) day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the ten (10) day period and in good condition, within 45 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and that a withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

The Institutions shall refund 100 percent (100%) of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

A refund policy for the return of unearned institutional charges if the student cancels an enrollment agreement or withdraws during a period of attendance. The refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent (60%) or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund.

The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal.

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the campus of High Desert Medical College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Director of Admissions. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of "Director of Admissions." The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within ten (10) days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in good condition within the ten (10) day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the ten (10) day period and in good condition, within 45 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and that a withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

The Institutions shall refund 100 percent (100%) of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

A refund policy for the return of unearned institutional charges if the student cancels an enrollment agreement or withdraws during a period of attendance. The refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent (60%) or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund.

The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal.

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the campus of High Desert Medical College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Director of Admissions. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of "Director of Admissions." The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within ten (10) days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in good condition within the ten (10) day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the ten (10) day period and in good condition, within 45 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and that a withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

The Institutions shall refund 100 percent (100%) of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

A refund policy for the return of unearned institutional charges if the student cancels an enrollment agreement or withdraws during a period of attendance. The refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent (60%) or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund.

The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal.

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the campus of High Desert Medical College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Director of Admissions. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of "Director of Admissions." The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within ten (10) days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in good condition within the ten (10) day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the ten (10) day period and in good condition, within 45 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and that a withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

The Institutions shall refund 100 percent (100%) of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

A refund policy for the return of unearned institutional charges if the student cancels an enrollment agreement or withdraws during a period of attendance. The refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent (60%) or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund.

The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal.

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the campus of High Desert Medical College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Director of Admissions. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of "Director of Admissions." The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within ten (10) days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in good condition within the ten (10) day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the ten (10) day period and in good condition, within 45 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and that a withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

The Institutions shall refund 100 percent (100%) of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

A refund policy for the return of unearned institutional charges if the student cancels an enrollment agreement or withdraws during a period of attendance. The refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent (60%) or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund.

The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal.

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the campus of High Desert Medical College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Director of Admissions. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of "Director of Admissions." The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within ten (10) days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in good condition within the ten (10) day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the ten (10) day period and in good condition, within 45 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and that a withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

The Institutions shall refund 100 percent (100%) of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

A refund policy for the return of unearned institutional charges if the student cancels an enrollment agreement or withdraws during a period of attendance. The refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent (60%) or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund.

The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal.

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the campus of High Desert Medical College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Director of Admissions. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of "Director of Admissions." The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within ten (10) days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in good condition within the ten (10) day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the ten (10) day period and in good condition, within 45 days after your notice of cancellation is received.
