Definitions

"Number of Students Who Began the Program" means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.

"Students Available for Graduation" is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.

"Number of On-time Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.

"On-time Completion Rate" is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.

"150% Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).

"150% Completion Rate" is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.

"Graduates Available for Employment" means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.

"Graduates unavailable for employment" means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education at an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.

"Graduates Employed in the Field" means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.

"Placement Rate Employed in the Field" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.

"Number of Graduates Taking Exam" is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

"First Available Exam Date" is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.

"Passage Rate" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.

"Number Who Passed First Available Exam" is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.

"Salary" is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.

"No Salary Information Reported" is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

You may cancel your contract with the school without any penalty or obligation. You will be responsible, however, for any non-refundable fees outlined in the school catalog and in your contract. A student is not considered withdrawn until a written cancellation has been received. It is the responsibility of the student to verify that their written cancellation is received by the school.

Classroom Courses:

If your notice of cancellation is made through the first day of instruction or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the school shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or registration fee not to exceed $150 (nutrition consultant) or $250 (natural chef) and any late enrollment fees charged (if applicable).

Distance Learning:

If your notice of cancellation is made through the first day of instruction or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the school shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or registration fee not to exceed $150) and any late enrollment fees charged (if applicable). After this date, a student will be charged for the first program module (NC 101). Henceforth, cancellation must take place within eight days after the student has access to curriculum materials for the next module(s) from the Student Dashboard; otherwise, tuition the module(s) will not be included in your pro-rated refund. If the institution has sent the first lesson and materials before an effective cancellation notice was received, the institution shall make refund within 45 days after the student's return of materials.

All Students:

A student may withdraw from a program after instruction has started and receive a prorated refund for the unused portion of the tuition if 60% or less of the program has been completed. Any discount applied to the original enrollment will become void upon cancellation. Refunds on materials in resalable condition will be granted if returned within two weeks after the first day of instruction. A 50% refund of the Student Services and Technology Fee will be granted if cancellation occurs within 45 days after the first day of instruction. After that point, the fee will be charged in full.

Students who wish to cancel must be current with their financial obligations to the school. Tuition charges and fees will continue to accrue until a student's financial account is settled.

This signed cancellation notice, or another written notice of cancellation, can be sent by mail, fax, or hand delivery to:

Bauman College
PO Box 940
10151 Main Street, Ste. 128
Penngrove, CA 94951
Fax: 707-795-3820

- A prorated refund will be calculated from the date that this notice is postmarked (with correct address and postage), delivered, or faxed.
- After your cancellation is received in Penngrove, it will be processed and refunded by check or credit card within 45 days.
- Monies paid by third party payers will be refunded directly to the payer, and not to the student.

I cancel my contract with Bauman College.

Definitions

- "Number of Students Who Began the Program" means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- "Students Available for Graduation" is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- "Number of On-time Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- "On-time Completion Rate" is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- "150% Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- "150% Completion Rate" is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- "Graduates Available for Employment" means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- "Graduates unavailable for employment" means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education at an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- "Graduates Employed in the Field" means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- "Placement Rate Employed in the Field" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- "Number of Graduates Taking Exam" is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- "First Available Exam Date" is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- "Passage Rate" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- "Number Who Passed First Available Exam" is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- "Salary" is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.
- "No Salary Information Reported" is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

You may cancel your contract with the school without any penalty or obligation. You will be responsible, however, for any non-refundable fees outlined in the school catalog and in your contract. A student is not considered withdrawn until a written cancellation has been received. It is the responsibility of the student to verify that their written cancellation is received by the school.

Classroom Courses:

If your notice of cancellation is made through the first day of instruction or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the school shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or registration fee not to exceed $150 (nutrition consultant) or $250 (natural chef) and any late enrollment fees charged (if applicable).

Distance Learning:

If your notice of cancellation is made through the first day of instruction or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the school shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or registration fee not to exceed $150) and any late enrollment fees charged (if applicable). After this date, a student will be charged for the first program module (NC 101). Henceforth, cancellation must take place within eight days after the student has access to curriculum materials for the next module(s) from the Student Dashboard; otherwise, tuition the module(s) will not be included in your pro-rated refund. If the institution has sent the first lesson and materials before an effective cancellation notice was received, the institution shall make refund within 45 days after the student's return of materials.

All Students:

A student may withdraw from a program after instruction has started and receive a prorated refund for the unused portion of the tuition if 60% or less of the program has been completed. Any discount applied to the original enrollment will become void upon cancellation. Refunds on materials in resalable condition will be granted if returned within two weeks after the first day of instruction. A 50% refund of the Student Services and Technology Fee will be granted if cancellation occurs within 45 days after the first day of instruction. After that point, the fee will be charged in full.

Students who wish to cancel must be current with their financial obligations to the school. Tuition charges and fees will continue to accrue until a student's financial account is settled.

This signed cancellation notice, or another written notice of cancellation, can be sent by mail, fax, or hand delivery to:
